

WELCOME

On May 2, 1962, a dramatic advertisement appeared in the San Francisco Examiner: "I don't want my husband to die in the gas chamber for a crime he did not commit. I will therefore offer my services for 10 years as a cook, maid, or housekeeper to any leading attorney who will defend him and bring about his vindication."

One of San Francisco's greatest attorneys, Vincent Hallinan, read or heard about the ad and contacted Gladys Kidd, who had placed it. Her husband, Robert Lee Kidd, was about to be tried for the slaying of an elderly antique dealer. Kidd's fingerprints had been found on a bloodstained ornate sword in the victim's shop. During the trial, Hallinan proved that the antique dealer had not been killed by the sword, and that Kidd's fingerprints and blood on the sword got there because Kidd had once toyed with it while playfully dueling with a friend when they were both out shopping. The jury, after 11 hours, found Kidd to be not guilty. Attorney Hallinan refused Gladys Kidd's offer of 10 years' servitude.

Given that yesterday was Valentine's Day, it seemed appropriate to consider so great an example of love. Even more appropriate is the Divine example of supreme love. I'm so glad that Jesus is my defense attorney. And I'm so glad He isn't going to charge for me for His services. It's an amazing display of God's love for us.

BIBLE READING

challenge

What if we started this year with a commitment to read all the way through the Bible? Can you imagine? Genesis to Revelation over the next 360 Days? Each week in the "THIS WEEK" section of the bulletin, you'll notice some Bible texts in GREEN. If you will read those verses each day, by December 31, 2020, you will have read cover to cover through the entire Bible. You'll notice a balance in the daily reading from Old and New Testaments. This is because there are some chapters that are heavy reading, and we want to balance it out. Are you up for the challenge? Let's do this one together!

BECOMING A STUDENT OF THE WORD || Wednesday, 6:30pm

A new mid-week Bible study group starting this coming Wednesday evening at 6:30. In this new study group, led by Mike Colburn, learn the inductive study method where the historical background, dates, key people of the text, and their concepts are brought to new understanding. Make observations about the text, and find new ways to apply what you've learned to your life in practical ways. This week's lesson: "Surveying the Shelves: Understanding the Basic Story of the Bible." (please note: this study does not replace Prayer Meeting.)

"UndeFEETed" with GEORGE DENNEHY

Better known as "that armless guy", George presents his story on Friday, March 20 at 7:30 PM and Sabbath, March 21 at 3:00 PM at Ozark Adventist Academy (20997 Dawn Hill East Rd., Gentry, AR 72734). Although he was born without arms, he has taught himself to play guitar, electric bass and piano. He sings and plays music from his heart — using his feet! Come be inspired by this amazing testimony of victory despite seemingly unconquerable odds and circumstances!

The Gospel According to Genesis

They say history repeats itself. The Bible proves it. Everything you need to know about humanity is chronicled in colorful detail. Why do we do the things we do? Why do we choose the things we choose? Why do we prefer the forbidden fruit instead of the way of obedience? Genesis tells the story. It's the story of man running away. And God chasing after him to save him. It's the story of the Gospel of Jesus. And it can all be found in Genesis.
