

WELCOME

Connie Mack was one of the greatest managers in the history of baseball. One of the secrets of his success was that he knew how to lead and inspire men. He knew that people were individuals. Once, when his team had clinched the pennant well before the season ended, he gave his two best pitchers the last ten days off so that they could rest up for the World Series. One pitcher spent his ten days off at the ball park; the other went fishing. Both performed brilliantly in the World Series. Mack never criticized a player in front of anyone else. He learned to wait 24 hours before discussing mistakes with players. Otherwise, he said, he dealt with the goofs too emotionally.

In the first three years as a major league baseball manager, Connie Mack's teams finished sixth, seventh, and eighth. He took the blame and demoted himself to the minor leagues to give himself time to learn how to handle men. When he came back to the major leagues again, he handled his players so successfully that he developed the best teams the world had ever known up to that time.

Mack had another secret of good management: he didn't worry. "I discovered," he explained, "that worry was threatening to wreck my career as a baseball manager. I saw how foolish it was and I forced myself to get so busy preparing to win games that I had no time left to worry over the ones that were already lost. You can't grind grain with water that has already gone down the creek."

Someone has once said that worry is like a rocking chair, it doesn't get you anywhere. Today, choose to trust the Lord, and He will bless you. Welcome to SAF!

BECOMING A STUDENT OF THE WORD || Wednesday, 6:30pm

A new mid-week Bible study group starting this coming Wednesday evening at 6:30. In this new study group, led by Mike Colburn, learn the inductive study method where the historical background, dates, key people of the text, and their concepts are brought to new understanding. Make observations about the text, and find new ways to apply what you've learned to your life in practical ways. This week's lesson: "Surveying the Shelves: Understanding the Basic Story of the Bible." (please note: this study does not replace Prayer Meeting.)

!!! SAF YOUTH !!! || COMING ATTACTIONS

PASTOR ORIAN OUT OF TOWN || This Sunday - Wednesday

"UndeFEETed" with GEORGE DENNEHY

Better known as "that armless guy", George presents his story on Friday, March 20 at 7:30 PM and Sabbath, March 21 at 3:00 PM at Ozark Adventist Academy (20997 Dawn Hill East Rd., Gentry, AR 72734). Although he was born without arms, he has taught himself to play guitar, electric bass and piano. He sings and plays music from his heart — using his feet! Come be inspired by this amazing testimony of victory despite seemingly unconquerable odds and circumstances!

The Gospel According to Genesis

They say history repeats itself. The Bible proves it. Everything you need to know about humanity is chronicled in colorful detail. Why do we do the things we do? Why do we choose the things we choose? Why do we prefer the forbidden fruit instead of the way of obedience? Genesis tells the story. It's the story of man running away. And God chasing after him to save him. It's the story of the Gospel of Jesus. And it can all be found in Genesis.
