

WELCOME

Thomas Edison invented the microphone, the phonograph, the incandescent light, the storage battery, talking movies, and more than 1000 other things. December 1914 he had worked for 10 years on a storage battery. This had greatly strained his finances. This particular evening spontaneous combustion had broken out in the film room. Within minutes all the packing compounds, celluloid for records and film, and other flammable goods were in flames. Fire companies from eight surrounding towns arrived, but the heat was so intense and the water pressure so low that the attempt to douse the flames was futile. Everything was destroyed.

It has been estimated that Edison lost more than $1 million worth of equipment, and the records of much of his work in that fire. He was insured for only $238,000 because his building was concrete and thought to be fireproof. At age 67, would his spirit be broken?

Edison's son, Charles saw the glow of the fire and had been searching for his father. When Charles found him, he noted that his dad was just watching the fire calmly. "My heart ached for him," said Charles. He was 67 and everything he had and had worked on and for was going up in smoke--literally." But when Edison saw Charles, he told him to find his mother, because as he put it, "She's never going to see anything else like this as long as she lives."

The fire didn't stop Edison. Three weeks after the fire, he delivered the first phonograph. It is said that the morning after the fire, as he walked through the ruins and ashes he said, "There is value in disaster. All our mistakes are burned up and we can start anew."

I'm glad that in Jesus we can start anew. Our mistakes are forgotten, and our future is reset. Welcome to Worship.

SERMON SERIES

The Gospel According to Genesis

They say history repeats itself. The Bible proves it. Everything you need to know about humanity is chronicled in colorful detail. Why do we do the things we do? Why do we choose the things we choose? Why do we prefer the forbidden fruit instead of the way of obedience? Genesis tells the story. It's the story of man running away. And God chasing after him to save him. It's the story of the Gospel of Jesus. And it can all be found in Genesis. (Upcoming topics can be found on other side of bulletin on the WELCOME page.)
