WINTER IN FLAGSTAFF

Designated as Arizona's winter wonderland, Flagstaff attracts visitors from all over to our snowy playground. Accumulating an average of 100 inches of snow annually in downtown, the surrounding ponderosa forests are blanketed with even more, welcoming winter enthusiasts to partake in a multitude of winter activities, such as skiing, snowshoeing, sledding and snowbiking.

EXPERIENCE WINTER TO ITS FULLEST:

- Grab your skis or snowboard and head up to Arizona Snowbowl for a day on the slopes.
- Visit the Arizona Nordic Village to experience cross country skiing and snowshoeing on the 25 miles of groomed trails. Or grab the sled and to have a fun day playing in the snow.
- Head indoors for some ice skating fun at the Jay Lively Activity Center or catch an NAU hockey game for an exciting family night.
- Take a trip to Mormon Lake lodge and hop on a snowmobile for a guided tour through the winter wonderland of the Coconino National Forest.
- Experience the variety of shopping, dining, and nightlife during a winter evening in the Historic Downtown Flagstaff.
- For a fun time check out the Flagstaff Snow Park for a winter experience complete with snow tubing, hot coco and outdoor fire pits.

alluring golden brown, red and orange autumn colors. Those interested in absorbing the scenery by foot might consider hiking some of Flagstaff's prominent trails. There are many trails, ranging in difficulty, which will provide stunning views of the changing landscape. Another great option for taking in the fall colors is on the scenic chairlift ride at Arizona Snowbowl.

SUMMER IN FLAGSTAFF

At 7,000 feet summer means mild sunny days where the sweet scent of ponderosa pine beckons and visitors find endless opportunities for outdoor adventure and countless special events and festivals to fill the inviting cool evenings.
