LifeWay, carrying out its mission in part as FUGE Camps is committed to serving your church or family ("Group") as you disciple students to learn about and engage people in different cultural contexts and felt-needs ministry through the lens of the gospel. This best happens through teamwork with the local church (the "Sponsoring Church") to help create a meaningful and safe experience for all participants. The following responsibilities are required from each Group's leadership ("Group Leader") while participating in a FUGE Camps experience (the "Event"):

The Group Leader is responsible for the spiritual guidance of all individuals in the Group.

This includes, but is not limited to, counseling students and adults concerning spiritual decisions in corporate gatherings, quiet time, church group time, as well as other opportunities throughout the Event.

The Group Leader is responsible for discipline, supervision and leadership of individuals in the Group.

This includes, but is not limited to, in the dorms/lodging, during corporate gatherings, during scheduled activities and throughout free time.

The Group Leader staying in hotel or condo accommodations must read and abide by all hotel/condo respect policies, as well as general policies for the property they have chosen to stay in.

The Group is responsible for any damages incurred due to actions from members of the Group.

The Group Leader acknowledges that all decisions regarding medical needs of the Group is the sole responsibility of the Group Leader.

This includes, but is not limited to, decisions about medical/injury treatment, collecting and maintaining copies of camp participant forms, medical history or attendees' medical insurance information, transportation to medical facilities if needed and communication with parents or guardians regarding any medical needs of the Group.

In the event of an accident or injury to a member of the Group, FUGE Camps staff will not make any recommendations or decisions regarding medical treatment or diagnose illnesses or injuries, or provide medication of any kind. All medical decisions are reserved for the Group Leader

The Group Leader is responsible for a child protection policy.

This includes conducting background checks and completing all sections of this Agreement, as well as establishing guidelines and policies that ensure the safety of all Participants in the Group.

The Group Leader certifies and affirms that the Sponsoring Church maintains adequate insurance.
