

ISRAEL WAINER'S MEMORY HONORED BY MANY FRIENDS

Israel Wainer, who died last February 27, was remembered by his wife, children and a number of his friends yesterday when a tombstone at his grave in the Lombardy cemetery was dedicated in accordance with the ritual of the orthodox synagogue. Members of the Adas Kodesch Synagogue, Chesed Shel Emeth Synagogue, B'nai B'rith, B'rith Sholom, Home Lodge, Moses Montefiore Society and other Jewish organizations in the city were present.

Headed by Rabbi David B. Swiren, formerly of Wilmington, now connected with the Lenas Hazdek Cynagogue of Philadelphia, and Rabbi Hymen Rezits, cantor from the Adas Kodesch Synagogue, the group of people walked to the Wainer plot. First the cantor chanted the ritual. This was followed by short eulogies by Rabbi Swiren and Rabbi Rezits.

They praised Mr. Wainer for having been a devout Jew and spoke of the interest he had taken in all Jewish affairs. They spoke of his benevolence and of the aid he had rendered to Wilmington Jewry as one of the pioneers of the Jews who came here and helped to construct the religious and welfare centers.
