

OBITUARY*ISRAEL J. WAINER.

Israel J. Wainer, aged 66 years, of Delaware City, died in the Physicians' and Surgeons' Hospital, yesterday, following a short illness from pneumonia. Mr. Wainer had been suffering from complications before contracting the disease from which he died. He had been in the hospital only a short time. Mr. Wainer lived here for many years before moving to Delaware City, where he was the post tailor for Fort DuPont. During his younger years, he was active in all civic improvement and especially interested in Jewish education in this city.

Mr. Wainer was one of the organizers of the Adas Kodesh congregation. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rebecca Wainer, three daughters, Mrs. Mary Shanken, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Tillie Friedman, Belmar, N. J., and Mrs. Susie Sherman, Philadelphia, and four sons, Colonel Max R., and Captain Perry Wainer, of the United States Army; Isaac J. and Lewis J. Wainer, this city.
