

Local Brevities

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter, Hamilton, Mo., Feb. 27. Mrs. Carpenter formerly Mrs. E. M. O'Connell, Hamilton, Mo. The son is Paul Carpenter, Jr., born at 1323 South Main street.

A. H. Patrick's program will be presented at a meeting of the Knights of Columbus at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the convent home, North and Byvane streets.

Miss Phyllis, Dr. John Spencer, advertisement.

Navy recruiters here today were notified that there would be no immediate reduction in the quotas of men to be enlisted in the navy from the St. Joseph territory. Consequently, they are taking applications from all men apply.

Orders to settle three men either in the bank and service company or the 17th infantry, both now based at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., were received today by Sgt. Leslie Bennett, recruiter in the federal building.

Dr. L. McPail, osteopath, Green and streets, 812 Edmund, 4-2966. Advertisement.

Several hundred persons filed state income tax reports this morning at the office of Charles Clark Robert E. Gardner, Commissioner of the division for filing such reports.

The League of Unemployed Veterans will meet at 8 o'clock this evening at the office of Charles Clark Robert E. Gardner, Commissioner of the division for filing such reports.

The League of Unemployed Veterans will meet at 8 o'clock this evening at the office of Charles Clark Robert E. Gardner, Commissioner of the division for filing such reports.

Public agents and overall dance Saturday night. Swiss Lodge. Advertisement.

Thirteen members of the senior class of the Central Mo. High School made today of three St. Joseph Industrial park and the educational institution. The visit, accompanied by Superintendent Ben Lee Wiley, director of the Kansas Cattle Company, The News-Paper, The Blue Bird Company and Platt-Gardner Business University.

Central High School will give a complimentary dinner tonight at 6 o'clock for thirty-two students who will receive their diplomas. The ceremony of making fire and Louis Carroll, faculty members, part of the hall and seats in the hall will be held during the hour. Letters and certificates are being mailed in this way.

Experimented heavy operation would, to not phone Plymouth. Advertisement.

John Lindsay of Norman, Okla., served this afternoon to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Williams, Thirty-ninth and Franklin streets. The afternoon spent was spent in reading.

Proceeding Attorney Maurice Hoffman will address a meeting of the Young Democratic Club of County Clubby the night of March 13 at 8 o'clock.

Claude Madison and Margaret W. Cain have been named successors of the estate of William E. Cain, who died March 4.

Problems and solutions of the law to high school will present a program at the school tonight. The night will include musical numbers, readings and three evening plays "Turkey and the Mumps," "Doubt About Date" and "Blame," Iris Craft and Elizabeth Thomas are the class officers.

John Deakins, a senior at Central College, Paris, Mo., and son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Deakins of Kansas, has been selected for inclusion in the 1940 edition of "Who's Who Among Students."

Nathan Durbin, who operated a grocery store in St. Joseph for more than twenty years prior to 1928 and the section, South Durbin, who recently moved to St. Joseph from Lebanon, Mo., will open a fruit and vegetable store here at 221 Missouri street Saturday.

The interior of the location has been redecorated and new fixtures have been installed. Nathan Durbin recently returned from Kansas City where he was in business the last five years.

Earl M. Smith, who was head baker at the Ernest bakery off Main street, has opened a bakery at 1300 Frederick street. The location occupied by Mr. Smith has been redecorated and modernized, and catering service is provided.

The history of Ireland was reviewed by the Rev. Daniel O'Donnell, Catholic Chaplain of the Linnell Club at Oakhurst's on Main. The speaker traced the history of the island from about 1000 B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Stubaugh, 1313 South Second street, announce the birth of a son, David, this morning at the home. Mrs. Stubaugh was formerly Miss Helen Shaw.

The music dramatic department of the Agnes High School will present an evening entertainment tomorrow and Saturday evening. The play will include a musical show. Special instrumental numbers will be given by Homer Babcock and by the concert trio, Norman Keith Munson, Bob Bortick and W. L. Babcock.

In the News Again

Miss Viola Hanna, whose entry in the singing contest recently closed was awarded first place this week, figured in the news again this morning. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hanna, 227 1/2 S. Main street. She is twenty years old, first born of the couple and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hanna.

CAR DEALERS MEET

Thirty-Six Attend Banquet at Hotel Hubbard

Problems concerning motor car dealers in Missouri were discussed at a meeting of the executive committee of the Missouri Automobile Dealers' Association yesterday at Hotel Hubbard and at a banquet given last night in the hotel by the St. Joseph Automobile Dealers' Association.

J. Ed Travis of St. Charles, president of the state association, presided at the all-day meeting, which was attended by seven men from outside the city. They included Joseph A. Roberts of St. Louis, secretary of the state group and secretary and manager of the Greater St. Louis Automobile Association; John H. Henderson Jr. of Jefferson City; J. B. O'Neill and Thomas Allen of Columbia; and John H. Henderson Jr. of Columbia; Bruce County representative in the state legislature, and James H. Gray of Grant City, Worth County state representative.

L. W. Lucas of St. Lawrence, Mo., president of the St. Joseph association, presided at the evening banquet to which members of the local group and dealers from the St. Joseph trade territory were invited. Thirty-five dealers attended.

Mr. Allen, who served as the first president of the state association, spoke on the history of

Clipped By:

dsfaec Sun, Jun 20, 2021