

Park-e-mon Go! Winter Carnival Scavenger Hunt

Mission Type	Title	Mission	Points
	A Man's Home Is His Palace	Peanuts are spread all over town But their author's childhood home Is near a park of scant renown, Only a block or so to roam.	400
	A Matter of Public Health	An invite from Jonathan Brings you to this target park For a metropolitan Cruise on which you might embark.	400
	A Partridge in a Pear Tree?	You'll find this park is the home To a gift from our sister Serenity by the dome Near a brook with no glister.	400
	Count On This One	Parks A to Z, lake to fount Seems like endless numeration But what if you only count Centers of recreation?	400
	Don't Let the Name Scare 'Ya	This park is a kettle of fun When the fall winds begin to blow. Go stew in the shed when it's done Where Silver Foxes take it slow.	400
	Frankly, Whose Park Is This?	Outside of Moscow, on a hill- A man who had many brothers. Though only porters fit the bill, They named him over the others.	400
	In the beginning...	Irvine Park, Mears, and Rice The first parks, we held dear. Ribbon cuttings, held thrice All happened in what year?	400
	Name That Park in Three Words	A great eagle of New York Now spreading its wings of bronze Where St. Paul's high road doth fork And carpenters met scions	400
	The Name of the Game	Where Asia's Southeast quarter And St. Paul's sport fields have met. Your hands are a non-starter For putting ball over net	400
	Watch Where You Walk	Once numbering nearly two score Through centuries of wind and rain, Hopewell stood high above the shore. Now only this many remain.	400

Park-e-mon Go! Winter Carnival Scavenger Hunt

Mission Type	Title	Mission	Points
	Feeling Empty Inside	The right picture could go viral Down below the hams on the ridge. Show us a masonic spiral There on the trail under the bridge.	500
	Head To the Border	Take a shot of a waterfall Anywhere along the stream's path We just ask in this park is all, The one named for a time of wrath.	500
	If You're Not Succeedin'...	Take your photo near an island There in front of the pavilion. In the garden you can smile and Enjoy the gift from a billion.	500
	Look For a Landmark	As Linus and Sally look on, "Chuck" sits with his dog by a tree. Shoot a clip playing on the lawn Where she with the football will be.	500
	No Need Mister To Go To Washington	Shoot a picture of the skyline, Taking a path that ends on high. From here you can view the divine, Plus the capitol quite nearby.	500
	Not In the Adirondack Mountains	On the low end of something high You'll find a roomy place to sit. With plenty of art found nearby A pic with green is most legit.	500
	On the Beach?	Send us an image of you That shows the art on the wall. Keep Frank and Earl out of view As the park is rather small.	500
	This Is Positively the Way To Go	Six panels will prove you're not naïf Adorned by creatures they will be. Where St. Paul's rep made nature safe Choose just one to take a selfie.	500
	Yacht to Look Over This Way	A selfie with a giant shell Is the thing you're going after. Find ol' Kelley and you'll do well Near where Huck Finn was a rafter.	500
	Yellow Journalism?	Go west young ones in search of art And seek out sculptures by the herd. For Democracy do your part And let us see your voice be heard.	500

Park-e-mon Go! Winter Carnival Scavenger Hunt

Mission Type	Title	Mission	Points
	A Bit L'Occidental	Where the fish swim in the city And people zoom just yards apart. Take the trail to something pretty, A troll's-eye view of hidden art.	600
	A Connecticut Yankee	A tri-corner is your mission. He's often in the park alone. Having gained a peak position The one life he gave was his own.	600
	A Green Space	This park bears the family name. Their mansion stood not far from here. Find this corner to win our game. Then maybe sit and have a beer.	600
	Dark Waters	A monument to the World War With Mississippi all around That's the item you're looking for; Yet there's no island to be found.	600
	Excedra, Excedra, Excedra...	A sunken garden has played host To many a winter wedding. Where palms and ferns keep you engrossed That's the place that you should be heading.	600
	Not Quite the Lily Pond	In an amphibian's domain You'll find a building that's brand new. Nothing of Sheffer to remain, So check it out - we want you to.	600
	Off the Island	Follow water under the bridge In a circle get together. There's no shopping like Rose or Ridge But find shelter from the weather	600
	The Elephant in the Park	Who needs a Common Hackberry? Here's an idea - Butternut! A Green Ash works, or Pin Cherry. Who thinks Staghorn is ultimate?	600
	TIEBREAKER! - The Road To Texas	A drive downtown will start this game You'll have to exit to enter. Then find a park of the same name. Five arches put you at center.	600
	Where Are They Now?	A hunter and his dog left home Spending many years at the zoo. Back to native land did they roam Or wait, there's actually two?	600

