	A Monumental Effort	In the park twin peaks are an ode To ice castles that will never melt. Where the century castle glowed, What subtitle shows how they felt?	400
	Can I Exchange These Tickets?	'Twas the Schubert in nineteen ten And since then a record long spree. It's had some name changes since then, Like this new name in thirty three.	400
	Don't Look in the Town Square	From Philadelphia they came, To travel circular courses. Let the kids ride, they're very tame. Just tell us, how many horses?	400
	Don't Take a Ride on the Reading	If you're following the right track You'll end up going round and round. James Hill made it more than a shack By this street name it was renowned.	400
	Go Forth from Here	A stationary component Of Hill's empire was built with charm. And joined by many an opponent, Now restored, what food do they farm?	400
	Home of the Great Spirit	A cave that was carved in the bluff By clear waters from deep below Where native tribes worked out their stuff Is made of what? We want to know.	400
	No Shopping at This Mall	Where things spiral into control To express grateful sentiments. They honor a fight for justice Using how many elements?	400
	Nobly Peaceful	St. Paul's diplomatic master Had a house that was quite a thing. He resolved to make it vaster. For what boss did he name a wing?	400
	You Can Maybe View It from the Ocean	For silent movies it was made But three ghosts make a lot of noise. Freeway noises leave them dismayed But this design style adds some poise.	400
	You'll Need Some Luck	Back in old Saint Anthony Hill Maybe in eighteen fifty eight David built a house that stands still. And he used this stuff to create	400

	Are We Playing Games?	For many years Angus was here Then nil before a new dawning. Oh it was fabulous my dear. Get your shot under an awning.	500
	Be a Social Climber	A carriage house is your subject On a great Romanesque estate. This northern marvel earns respect. But no need to enter the gate.	500
	Coal Energy	Take steel and steam far from downtown To where they fixed things of power. Since made many investors frown. Snap for us the water tower.	500
	Don't Overlook This One	Take your picture while on high ground. Where a solitary column sits. A mansion where hovels surround Fire reduced them both to bits.	500
	Life Is but a Dream	Once used mostly just for parking Now it's full of serene wonder. Just club members are embarking Show us the view from down under.	500
	Only One Can tell Time	Lofty arches that scrape heaven First built that still serves our people. Don't presume that was on seven, Now shoot up, showing a steeple.	500
	She's a Real Dish	St. Paul's most ancient place might be A relic of Hopewell culture. Where sacred sites you still can see Take your pic with Dewey's sculpture.	500
	This House Once Had Four Furnaces	A lax vision his wife had not And her plan - to spare no expense! Ram the house full with stuff they bought Say, send us a shot of the fence.	500
	This One's Affordable	Seek high waters on the high land. With a Cap design, numbering eight. Near the base we think you should stand Take a picture looking up straight.	500
	Try the North Gate	No need for obfuscating here. Nature will put up enough walls. Stairs from above could get you near. To pose next to the hidden falls.	500

	An Academic Area	A historic home of Irvine It now houses our heads of state. His and her views did not align. People still go there to debate.	600
	Brownstone for Rent	He wrote about our ice palace And once called this St. Paul place home. Towards his wife a bit callous, He went on to write a great tome.	600
	Could be Texas or Virginia	A keeper of knowledge go find That Carnegie built in the hills Its historic name reassigned The sight of freedom can still give chills.	600
	Heading to Market	Where there was once an old arcade Lucius built something much more grand. The most notable people stayed While Lawrence Welk would lead the band.	600
	Keeping the Lights On	Fifty feet of endless breakfast Started back in the Depression Late night stories often prefaced With a hazed, tipsy confession.	600
	Our Home Base	An old post office and courthouse That nearly faced the wrecking ball Is now home to Schubert (not Strauss) A gabled treasure for us all.	600
	Put on an Apron	There are three points on the compass Where the bricks have all been laid square. Need not howl or make a rumpus. The columns will show when you're there.	600
	This Only Seems Like a Walk in the Park	Saint Paul's oldest blood is found here In what was once called Jackson Woods. Their guests are typically austere And perhaps leave behind some goods.	600
	TIEBREAKER! - I Bet They Needed Strong Arms to Lift That!	The last house in downtown St. Paul Sat empty and didn't excel. So they picked it up, bricks and all, And moved it where it's doing well.	600
	You Might Have a Prayer on This One	A house on Summit you might say, Where Kittson's grand mansion once stood. An even more lavish display It gave a good name to the 'hood.	600
