OVERVIEW	Multicultural, vibrant, colonial describe Singapore. Explore Chinatown, Malay Village and Little India to experience the colour and ambience that makes up this small but fascinating country. Hong Kong is one of the most densely populated city in the world and located in China's southern coast. Enthusiastic, full of interest things here. Macau is a small peninsula in mainland China and it was Portuguese Empire, across the Pearl River Delta from Hong Kong. An interesting combination of British Colonial Hong Kong and Portuguese influenced Macau but with a distinctive Oriental flavour, these two destinations are separated by only a short ferry ride. Enjoy your trip to Hong Kong and also Macau all together. Visit the numerous temples, shrines, hot springs and national parks of Taiwan around the entire island. First exploring Taipei's urban and historic highlights then leave bustling Taipei behind for the remote beaches and rocky coastal scenery of Sun Moon Lake, Taroko Gorge, Kenting National Park and the East Coast National Area. Your guide provides insightful commentary on sites as Fo Guang Shan Monastery, Wenwu Temple, Holy Shrine and Tse-En Pagoda.

The name 'Macau' is derived from the name of a Chinese goddess, popular with seafarers and fishermen, known as A-Ma or Ling Ma. Macau is a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China since 20 December, 1999 and will maintain its social and economical characteristics in accordance to the principle of one country & two systems. After breakfast, meet up with your guide at the lobby of your hotel and make your way to the ferry terminal, where you will board a Turbojet or Catamaran for a 60-minute ride across the sea. Please be advised that you should bring along with your passport and air ticket copy. Upon arrival at Macau, check your passport at immigration and then the city tour begins. First visit Statue of Kum lam - the Goddess of Mercy and venture into Macau's historical center where A-Ma Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, was built in 1488. You'll learn about classical Chinese architecture and explore the grounds before enjoying an international buffet lunch at a local restaurant. Next make one last historical stop at the Ruins of St. Paul and short walk to Senado Square - an ancient complex that used to be the site of the Cathedral of St. Paul and St. Paul's College. Built in the 16th century by Christian exiles, a trip to the top of the ruin's 66 steps offers up incredible views of the stone carvings and structural remnants around the site. Afterward, continue sightseeing to Macau Tower and entry to the observation desk at floor 61 is on your own expense. Finally, head to the Macau Casino for one last adventure and place your bets in the premiere card room. Play a hand or simply take in all of the excitement before heading back to Hong Kong by catamaran or jetfoil and returning to hotel upon your arrival.

Day 9: Full-Day Taipei Highlight Tour (B/L/X)

After breakfast, we will head to National Palace Museum. We will short stop at Grand Hotel overlooking Taipei Basin. National Palace houses the world's largest collection of Chinese art treasure. Most of the 620,000 art objects were part of the Chinese imperial collection that was brought to Taiwan for safe-keeping. The collection is too large to be displayed at one time! While many popular pieces remain on permanent display, other items are rotated regularly, making each visit unique. We will proceed to visit Chiang Kai-Shek Memorial Hall, another landmark of Taipei, built to honor the Late President Chiang Kai-Shek who passed away in 1975 at the age of 89. Within walking distance, we will have photo stop in front of Presidential Office Building. This renaissance-style building has been the highest seat of government in Taiwan for over a century, first as the office of the governor general's office during the Japanese colonial period and after 1949 as Taiwan's 'White House.' Continue the tour to the most remarkable landmark – the Taipei 101 Tower We would like to give you some free time to go to Taipei 101 89th floor Observatory deck (At your own account) to have bird's eye view of Taipei city, or go shopping at Taipei 101 Mall. In the afternoon, we will visit Shifen Old Streets and Waterfalls in Pingxi, where you are able to experience flying sky lantern. In the past, those who worked or farmed in this remote hillside town used lanterns to inform their families they were safe when facing the risk of being robbed or killed. Nowadays, the lanterns do not function as signals anymore, but used as symbols of peace and good fortune. Our last stop today is Shihlin Night Market, one of the largest night markets in Taipei formed by many prosperous shops famous for various snacks and eatery. When one walks in the turning lanes and alleys, one would often find something unexpected.

- Accommodation: Grand Mayfull Hotel Taipei or similar (5 Star)
