

North Korean refugees in China risk being captured and repatriated, where they face severe punishments including torture, forced abortions, and lengthy prison sentences. Women are especially at risk of sexual exploitation, and countless North Korean women have been sold as brides or forced into the sex industry.

DONATE to my page to help fund a rescue.

Thousands of North Koreans have escaped, but are forced to live in hiding in China because they lack the contacts and resources to make it to a safe country.

WE CAN HELP.

DONATE to my page to fund a rescue.

Joo Ri was beaten and abused in a re-education camp after attempting to escape North Korea. After her release, she successfully escaped and connected with LiNK's networks in China. Now, she is safely resettled in South Korea.

DONATE to my fundraising page
to help fund more refugee rescues.

After being forced to live in hiding in China for years, Jung Ha and her mother were finally able to make the journey to freedom and safety through LiNK's networks. Today, they are safe and living freely in South Korea.

DONATE to my fundraising page
to help fund more refugee rescues.

Sae Won was sold as a bride in China after escaping North Korea. She fled her captor and returned to North Korea, only to be thrown in prison. After she was released, Sae Won left again for China. This time she connected with LiNK's networks and is now safe in South Korea.

DONATE to my fundraising page
to help fund more refugee rescues.

Thousands of North Koreans have escaped their country, but are now at risk of exploitation and capture because they cannot afford the 3,000-mile journey to safety.

DONATE to my page to help fund this journey.

