Built in 1973, this distinctive Lindal Cedar mountain retreat is full of character and charm. The dramatic great room features soaring cedar cathedral ceilings, a wall of windows, and a massive stone fireplace that creates a warm and inviting focal point.

The main level offers two bedrooms, a full bath, spacious kitchen, dining room, and bright sunroom—perfect for enjoying the peaceful wooded setting and seasonal mountain views. Upstairs, the private primary suite includes its own balcony, full bath, and sitting area.

The terrace level, currently used as an office, offers flexible space with its own exterior entrance—ideal for a recreation room, family room, craft studio, fitness area, or guest space. Outside, you'll find covered parking and a generous driveway with room for multiple vehicles.

Located in the sought-after Bent Tree community, this home offers access to 3,500 acres of amenities including 24/7 security, a 110-acre stocked lake, golf, tennis, pickleball, pools, beach area, hiking trails, waterfalls, clubhouse, restaurant, dog park, equestrian facilities, and more.
