Word

O Lord, Our God,

You have chosen to make Yourself known
Through Your Creation, Your Word, Your Son, and Your Spirit.

Now reveal Your glory to us and through us, the Church.

Speak to us, form us, lead us, dwell in us.

Teach us today how to love as Jesus loves,
To welcome the stranger, heal the sick, and care for the poor,
To bear good news, build bridges, and bring Your people home.

For Christ in us is the hope of glory.

May Your perfect will prevail in us this day,
In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

Amen.

Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing.

JOHN 14:12

Jesus, Son of David,
have mercy on me!

M A R K 1 0 : 4 7

What do you want me to do for you?

M A R K 1 0 : 5 1

Go! Your faith has healed you.

Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due, when it is in your power to act. Do not say to your neighbor, "Come back tomorrow and I'll give it to you" - when you already have it with you.

P R O V E R B S 3 : 2 7 - 2 8

Now this was the sin of Sodom: They were arrogant, overfed and unconcerned;
they did not help the poor and needy.

EZEKIEL 16:49-50

Disciple of Jesus,
have mercy on me!

A large crowd of people is gathered outdoors for a rally. Many individuals are holding Confederate battle flags on wooden poles. In the upper right, a large banner with the word 'WHITE' in red capital letters is visible. A person in the foreground wears a white hooded robe with a red sash and a circular emblem on the chest. Other participants wear dark clothing with patches, including one with the letters 'KKK'. The scene is set against a backdrop of trees and a clear sky.

A young man with dark hair, wearing a white t-shirt and dark jeans, is sitting on a hallway floor. He is leaning against a wall, with his head buried in his arms, looking down with a distressed expression. In the background, another person in a dark uniform is walking away down the hallway. The scene is dimly lit with a teal tint.
