

Wednesday Bible Study
1 Samuel 10

1. Read verse 2. Might there be occasions in our lives when even the good intentions of family can get in the way of doing the will of God? Explain.

2. Read verse 6. When the Holy Spirit comes upon someone, they cannot remain the same. So, then, what changes?

- a. Their appetites.
- b. Their attitudes and dispositions.
- c. Their allegiances.
- d. Their actions.
- e. Their direction.

3. Read verse 9. It says that God changed Saul's heart in an instant. Can God change your heart in an instant? If you believe He can, what would prevent Him from doing it?

- a. "I have always been this way. I guess I will always be this way!"
- b. "I really don't believe that He can change me."
- c. "My _____ is too big to overcome."
- d. "I am perfectly fine the way I am!"
- e. Ultimately, I am the only one who can prevent God from changing my heart.

4. When the Holy Spirit truly lives in a person, the actions of that person will follow suit. With Saul, the Spirit came upon him and he was participating. What were the observers, (those who knew Saul), saying?

5. In verse 16, why do you think Saul did not tell his uncle about what he had heard from Samuel about the kingdom? Have you ever not shared an experience you had with God because of these same reasons? Why or why not?

6. When the Holy Spirit does the work in your heart and your actions even change, will there be doubters in your life? Why?

7. What does Jesus say about trouble coming into our lives through troublemakers and people who hate us? How we should respond?

8. How am I different because of the study? _____
