

Startup Accounting, Finance, People Operations, and Tax Services Partner

Many startups struggle to strike a balance between rapid growth, accurate books, compliant people operations, and a clear financial plan. At airCFO, we provide top-tier financial and HR services, empowering you with a scalable back-office solution from Day 1. Focus on growth, let us handle the back-office.

Accounting

Our startup-centric approach to accounting means that you can rest easy knowing the books will be closed correctly with minimal oversight.

Finance

Our Finance experts handle financial modeling, budget vs. actuals tracking, and Board reporting to give you a clear view into financial performance.

People Operations

We help you set a strong People foundation so you can stay compliant and deliver a stellar experience for your most valuable asset: your employees.

Tax

We ensure you stay compliant throughout your startup journey, and go beyond annual filings to provide advisory services that maximize your tax credits.

How We're Different

We're a team of skilled, startup experts who are well-versed in how startups should scale their back-office practices and procedures. We've worked with 375+ startups who have collectively raised billions of dollars in funding. Here is what makes us different:

Tech Stack Curation

We stay on the cutting edge of the latest startup back-office tech and continuously monitor our clients' tech stacks so we make sure your systems evolve as your startup's needs shift.

Best-in-Class Deliverables

Our professionals work with a set of impressive, custom-built reporting tools with outputs that go above & beyond the industry standard. Our reporting can help you understand your financials, present to investors, and plan for the future.

Customizable from Seed to Exit

Outgrowing vendors each year is a significant burden. We work with you to provide tools & reports you need for each stage of your journey. Our services have helped clients go from idea to acquisition and even IPO.

Collaborative Approach

Every client is assigned a dedicated team of professionals who operate on our proprietary service delivery infrastructure. Team members collaborate behind the scenes to provide clients a cohesive experience.

"Without airCFO, we would have had a lot of difficulties in scaling up as our business became more complex. AirCFO was able to grow alongside us and deliver on its value proposition consistently."
