THERE ARE DAYS WE FEEL WE AREN'T ENOUGH.

There are moments in life, we all have them when we feel totally overwhelmed and lost.

It is absolutely normal. In fact, I would argue that it is healthy because it means you are in uncharted waters and usually means you are experiencing growth.

That being said, it can be troubling and create anxiety that, without a way out, can be crippling. I only know one way that has worked for me in these moments. I hope it helps you.

Did You Know?

Kids receive 3x more exposure to UV Rays than an Adult?

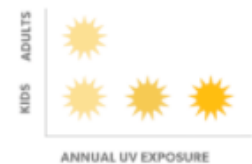

The only thing a kid should ever be concerned about is how much fun they're having, leave the UV protection to us!

SHOP SHADES

Sunscreen. Sunglass. Repeat.

Today, less than 30% of parents are protecting the eyes of their little ones with sunglasses. Just wearing some shades for 30 minutes gains 3000 hours of UV-free time!

GET EDUCATED!

UV Rays are not kid-friendly...but our shades certainly are!

WITHOUT A TRACE

Automations

Welcome to the Trace Family. We are so excited for you to experience Without A Trace Foods.

Did You Know...

All Without A Trace snacks were chef-created from scratch?

They were all designed for on-the-go convenience?

Our snacks are delicious, and just that. We've developed and tested recipes that are safe for your entire family. Then we tested them again (& again 😊) until we created the perfect gluten-free snack! We manufacture every product in our own gluten-free facility, which is also free from the top 9 allergens. That means you can enjoy our snacks without all the label reading.

We believe no one should ever miss out. Take 10% OFF your first order with code:

WELCOME10

— and together, let's declare snack time fun again!
