

Improve Contingent Hiring
with Direct Sourcing

livehire

Reduce contingent hiring costs

Contingent employees are a growing and important part of the workforce. Progressive organizations are rethinking how they can become more agile and rapidly source quality contingent or contract talent, while reducing costs.

Direct Sourcing is the answer

'Direct Sourcing' is when a company leverages its employer brand to attract and engage a pipeline of qualified contingent workers, resulting in substantial cost savings, an improved experience for your candidates and better quality talent.

LiveHire's Direct Sourcing platform helps you to source, engage and hire the right contract and contingent talent, at the right time and at the lowest cost.
