

HERZUM

We help teams succeed

Herzum's team of Atlassian certified consultants offer world-class services. Herzum is an Atlassian Platinum Partner and has been a partner since 2005. From small start-ups to large Fortune-100 enterprises, we have helped adopt, install, configure, extend, integrate, and manage all the Atlassian products. With consultants based both in the USA combined with teams near-shore and off-shore, Herzum's team does "Everything Atlassian" ™.

ENTERPRISE

Our Services

"Everything Atlassian" ™

Whether you need solutions for Agile projects, DevOps pipelines, help desk implementations or tracking for business teams, Herzum´s certified professionals can guide installation, configuration, optimization, and license support for Atlassian.

Cloud Specialized

Atlassian Cloud can be a great tool for teams, but if you have legacy data on premises, you'll need help getting it to the cloud. Whether you're migrating a single tool or trying to integrate multiple instances, Herzum can help.

Service Desk Specialized

Take your customer support to another level and transform it into your competitive advantage. Herzum's ITIL certified consultants can help you build a personalized service desk with ITSM best practices, with which you will quickly respond to all requirements, generate a knowledge base, and make sound decisions.

Licence Management Services

Herzum provides a real person who can answer your questions about licenses. If you need price quotes or want to compare prices for different options, the Herzum license team can help. Herzum can provide discounts on the purchase of most Atlassian-related products.
