Amazon Reimbursements Made Simple. Get Your Money Back with Seller Investigators.

The Industry's Most Trusted Dashboard

No more spreadsheets or untraceable claims. Our dashboard hyperlinks every case to let you track the status of your claims from filing to reimbursement, and works within Amazon's ToS to monitor your account weekly and flag any irregularities.

Get More Money in Less Time

The reimbursement process is complicated; fortunately, our team does the work for you. Your dedicated case manager will handle all aspects of the refund process, and our 20-person documentation team will follow up as necessary with any rejected claims and appeals.

Audit Your Accounts (and Your Auditor) at No Cost

Not convinced? Our free audit lets you audit your auditor to see what refunds they may have missed. Sign up for our free, no obligation audit to see what you could be owed in just 48 hours.

Track Every Dollar Returned

Our business is built on transparency, so we've designed our dashboards to give you full insight into every stage of the recovery process, including the details that other auditors might skip over. That's why we deliver up to 10% more reimbursements than our competitors.

Cases We Cover
