

impact.com + Chargebee: Drive more subscriptions with partnerships

Managing a thriving partnership program takes more than just getting partners to sign on the dotted line. It requires you to manage, optimize, and scale partnerships throughout their entire life cycle.

The impact.com partnership management platform is an end-to-end solution that empowers you to effectively automate and manage your partnerships. You can find new partners, track their efforts, and reward them for driving subscriptions for your business.

When you use the impact.com + Chargebee integration, you can:

Get your program up and running fast

The Chargebee impact.com app lets you easily integrate with impact.com – without relying on developers for a clunky custom build.

Eliminate operational overhead

Legal doesn't have to review every single contract every time you add a partner. Centralize partner recruitment, performance tracking, and payments in one platform.

Set up recurring partner payments

When your partners generate monthly subscriptions for your business, impact.com lets you pay them on a recurring basis.

The impact.com platform accelerates growth

Use the impact.com Chargebee app to expand your program and efficiently scale every type of partnership.

Discover influencers, affiliates, tech partners, and more — then easily recruit them with automated tools.

The word “partner” can mean a lot of things in the SaaS world, so here’s how we’re using it. These are the major partner types that refer business to software companies on our platform today.

As an impact.com user, you can:

Find and recruit new partners

Discover influencers, affiliates, mobile apps, and more — then easily recruit them with automated tools.

Drive more recurring revenue

Grow subscription-based revenue and gain new customers as your partners promote your products and services to their audiences.

Only pay when you see results

Automate payouts with smart, electronic contracts and only pay when a partner drives desired outcomes for your business.
