Superbowl of RC Racing Arrives Aug. 1-4 in Roseville

SpeedWorld Raceway Hosts ROAR On-Road Electric RC Nationals

Rocklin, CA - July 25, 2019- SpeedWorld Raceway & RC Shop in Roseville is teaming up with Placer Valley Tourism for the ROAR On-Road Electric RC Nationals from Aug. 1-4. This exciting event will showcase more than 100 of the top RC Racers in the country!

ROAR, which stands for Remotely Operated Auto Racers, is the National non-profit organization that governs and promotes the sport of radio-controlled model car racing for both on-road and off-road RC vehicles. SpeedWorld Raceway was selected from more than 40 other facilities to host this huge National championship.

"We are honored to host this prestigious event for the Remote-Control Racing community," explained Thello Jordan, co-owner of Speedworld Raceway. "We were chosen thanks to the continued support from Placer Valley Tourism and our recent track expansion was instrumental in helping us secure this National event."

"We would also like to give a shout out to our class sponsors: Solaris Tires, XRAY, Gravity RC Tires, R1 Wurks, Solars, Wallace Motorsports, and Mon-Tech Racing," added Jordan. "Their support is appreciated so much and we are thrilled to be hosting our biggest event to date!"

RC racers from around the country will arrive on July 31 and the track will be available for open practice runs. On Thursday, Aug. 1 the competition officially gets underway at 8 a.m. with ROAR controlled practice and seeding rounds. On Aug. 2-3 qualifying rounds will take place throughout the day. On Sunday, Aug. 4 the finals will be held and the top racers will earn the coveted title of On-Road National Champions!

Admission is free and spectators are welcome! SpeedWorld Raceway is located at 90 Corporation Yard Road in Roseville. Come see these amazing little vehicles burn some serious rubber!
