

Sponsored by

SCHULTZ
FAMILY
FOUNDATION

TRANSITIONING SERVICE MEMBERS & THEIR FAMILIES

Each year, more than 200,000 service members leave the military for the civilian sector. Navigating this transition can be complex, but these short, self-paced videos will benefit service members and families alike in successfully navigating their journey. Sponsored by the Schultz Family Foundation, these courses are for any service member, Veteran, or family member making the transition from military service.

Whether you are separating or retiring from the military, PsychArmor's portfolio of courses will provide you with the education, tools, and resources you need along your unique transition into the civilian world.

What You Should Know About Transition

Narrator

Dr. Robert Gates, Former Secretary of Defense & Howard Schultz, Co-Founder of the Schultz Family Foundation

How to Build a Successful Transition Plan

Narrator

General Pete Chiarelli, U.S. Army (Ret.)

Preparing Your Finances for Transition

Narrator

Harriet Dominique, USAA Educational Foundation

Making Connections and Networking

Narrator

Captain Florent Groberg, U.S. Army (Ret.), Medal of Honor Recipient

Telling Your Story

Narrator

David Vobora, Adaptive Training Foundation

Understanding and Utilizing Your Educational Benefits

Narrator

Honorable Patrick Murphy, Former Under Secretary of the Army & Former Congressman

Choosing a College and Major

Narrator

Dr. Robert Gates, Former Secretary of Defense & Jared Lyon, Student Veterans of America

The Job Search

Narrator

Howard Schultz, Co-Founder of the Schultz Family Foundation & General Carol Eggert (Ret.), Comcast NBCUniversal

Creating Resumes and Cover letters

Narrator

Matt Miller, formerly of Department of Labor VETS

Interviewing

Narrator

General Gary Profit (Ret.), Walmart

Understanding the VA for You and Your Family

Narrator

Wendy Torres, VA, Veterans Benefits Administration

Accessing Health Care

Narrator

Honorable Patrick J. Kennedy, Former Congressman & Founder of the Kennedy Forum

Seeking Support

Narrator

Dr. Keita Franklin, formerly of VA, Office of Mental Health and Suicide Prevention

Transitioning Service Members & Their Families

Social Media Post

PsychArmor® Institute Launches Online Courses for Transitioning Service Members & Their Families

Transitioning from military service into the civilian world can be difficult. PsychArmor's new portfolio of 13 courses for Transitioning Service Members and their Families simplifies the process. The portfolio, sponsored by the Schultz Family Foundation, equips service members with the tools and resources needed to be successful not only in today's workforce, but also in the community. Tips for a smooth transition are presented by leaders in the military and civilian sectors.

To watch full courses, register here.

E-Newsletter

PsychArmor® Institute Launches Online Courses for Transitioning Service Members & Their Families

Transitioning from military service into the civilian world can be difficult. PsychArmor's new portfolio of 13 courses for Transitioning Service Members and their Families simplifies the process.

From financial planning and resume writing, to landing that post-military job to learning to tell your personal story, this portfolio will equip you with the tools and strategies needed to be successful both in today's workforce and in the community.

Tips for a smooth transition are presented by leaders both in the military and civilian sectors including: Howard Schultz; Secretary Robert Gates; The Honorable Patrick Kennedy; The USAA Educational Foundation's Harriet Dominique; VA's Wendy Torres; Dr. Keita Franklin; General Carol Eggert (Ret.); General Pete Chiarelli (Ret.); General Gary Profit (Ret.); The Honorable Patrick Murphy; SVA's Jared Lyon; DoL VETS' Matt Miller; Congressional Medal of Honor recipient Florent Groberg; and Adaptive Training Foundation's David Vobora.

The portfolio is sponsored by the Schultz Family Foundation.

To watch full courses, register here.