2 JUDGE TIERNEY: I believe we have a court
3 reporter today. Parties identify themselves for the 4 purpose of the call and the transcript.

5 MR. MODI: Good afternoon, Your Honor,
6 this is Naveen Modi, counsel for Virnetx. It will 7 just be me today. Mr. Palys happens to be out of 8 the office today.

9 JUDGE TIERNEY: Petitioner.

10 MR. KUSHAN: Good afternoon. This is 11 Jeff Kushan for Apple. With me on the line is Scott 12 Border, and I dont know -- Jen, are you on?

13 MS. YOKOYANA: Yes. I am.

14 MR. KUSHAN: Okay. That's great.

15 JUDGE TIERNEY: Welcome, everyone, to the 16 conference call. My understanding from email 17 exchange last week was that Petitioner Apple had 18 requested the call, so Mr. Kushan, if you could give 19 us an overview for the purpose of the call today.

20 MR. KUSHAN: Thank you, Your Honor. We 21 had asked for the call because we had observed that 22 the Patent Owner had filed without authorization in

1 opposition to our joinder motion in the key 2 petitions relating to the '181 patent. Those are 3 IPR-2014-00485 and 486, and the parties have a 4 dispute about whether authorization in advance of 5 filing an opposition to a joinder motion that was 6 filed with the petition is something which requires 7 preliminary authorization from the panel.

8 Our understanding of the rules and the 9 procedure is that the Patent Owner had to first 10 secure authorization to file the opposition before 11 filing it and as they didn't, we would like to have 12 that, either have the opposition struck, or to be 13 given an opportunity to file a reply. We asked for 14 the call because in our view, it's the practice
15 under motion practice like this that you need 16 authorizations from the Board both as to the 17 substance of the opposition, but also as to the 18 timing, which raises a question. If we were given 19 in the alternative the opportunity to file a reply, 20 we would need to understand when that would be due.

21 So where we sit now is we don't have 22 guidance. That's what we are seeking from the panel

1 as to whether we can -- whether this filing of the 2 opposition was appropriate or not, and if it was 3 not, then we'd like to have it struck from the 4 record. That's the purpose of my call today.

5 JUDGE TIERNEY: I do have a couple of 6 questions. Assuming that they had to have 7 authorization, and they did not have authorization, 8 what would be the harm in just saying we authorize 9 it today, and then just going forward?

10 MR. KUSHAN: We would be okay with that 11 path, as long as we would have an opportunity to 12 reply to that opposition. It seems to us that 13 with -- you know, it's obviously in your discretion 14 however you want to handle the filing. If you were 15 to authorize that opposition under the general 16 ownership practice, then we would just request an 17 opportunity to file a short reply to that 18 opposition.

19 JUDGE TIERNEY: Anything? Any questions
20 from the panel before I move over to the Patent 21 Owner?

22 JUDGE SCHEINER: I have none.

1 JUDGE EASTHOM: No. Not from me.

2 JUDGE TIERNEY: Hearing no questions from 3 the panel at this time, we'd like to hear from the 4 Patent Owner as to how they would like to proceed in 5 this matter.

6 MR. MODI: Thank you, Your Honor. This 7 is Naveen Modi, Your Honor. So, Your Honor, our 8 understanding of the rules, as Mr. Kushan pointed 9 out, was that we were authorized to file this 10 opposition to a motion to joinder especially in a 11 case like this one, Your Honor, where Apple's motion 12 contained material facts, which, as you know, are 13 admitted if they are not challenged. We found other 14 cases where opposition to joinders were filed 15 without seeking prior authorization.

16 JUDGE TIERNEY: Mr. Modi, how about we 17 just -- I'll make it simple. Your opposition will 18 come in regardless whether it was authorized or not 19 authorized. I believe the point today is that it 20 will be entered as if it was filed. We can either 21 retroactively grant it, or just say under each 22 circumstance whether it was authorized or not, it's

1 in the file. We are moving forward.

2 MR. MODI: I'm sorry, Your Honor. I
3 appreciate that, and my last point was actually 4 speaking of policies from the Board to extend their 5 opposition was not authorized. We were going to 6 seek that. So I appreciate that, Your Honor.

7 JUDGE TIERNEY: Not a problem. In the 8 future, just so this matter won't arise, it's always 9 beneficial to have a conference call, and if the 10 Board wishes to speak about the matter and discuss 11 it, that's fine. We could also at that time just go 12 ahead and put out an email authorizing it at that 13 time just to clarify the matters. I understand the 14 reason for the confusion.

15 This is not a problem having it in the 16 record. I would like you to focus, though, if I 17 could, on whether or not there is any procedural 18 opposition to having Petitioner file a reply at this 19 time and the time for filing such.

20 MR. MODI: Your Honor, I think our only 21 comment on the reply is I think it goes to the point 22 if -- and sort of authorization was needed for an

1 opposition, authorization would be required for 2 reply. And I think here, Your Honor, the issue we 3 are having when we discussed the reply issue with 4 Apple was we were trying to figure out what the 5 purpose was for the reply. And it seemed to us it 6 was they just wanted a further opportunity to brief
7 the issues, but we understand obviously, Your Honor, 8 you do have discretion, and would certainly accept 9 the decision.

10 JUDGE TIERNEY: If there is any prejudice
11 that's going to be occurring on the Patent Owner, I 12 would like to alleviate it. Is there a time when 13 you believe it would be appropriate to have the 14 reply filed? We'd like to hear your thoughts on how 15 to handle the filing for a reply.

16 MR. MODI: Your Honor, in terms of the 17 time period, I believe, you know, if we look at the 18 rules, certainly the rules that we were operating 19 under, the rules provided, I believe, one month for 20 the opposition, which is what we were following, 21 42.25, Your Honor. And I believe the rules provide 22 one month for the reply. Obviously, here Apple has

1 had our opposition for almost a month, so I think we 2 can hear from Mr. Kushan as to what he believes he 3 needs, but we wouldn't be opposed to a reasonable 4 time period, Your Honor, in terms of a reply if Your 5 Honor is inclined to give them a reply.

6 The only caveat I would make is we be 7 given the opportunity -- to the extent the reply
8 goes beyond what's provided by the Board's rules, 9 that we would be given the opportunity to rate that 10 and we could do that by email, and then we could set 11 up a call if necessary.

12 JUDGE TIERNEY: I would like to try and 13 resolve the matter today if possible. As far as 14 what the time for filing a reply would be. Let's 15 hear from Petitioner as to when they could file such 16 a reply, what they are requesting.

17 MR. KUSHAN: Your Honor, if it would be 18 okay with the Board, we could file it maybe sometime 19 next week, maybe Wednesday of next week.

20 JUDGE TIERNEY: I'd like to hear from 21 Patent Owner if there is any objection to that.

22 MR. MODI: No, Your Honor.

1 JUDGE TIERNEY: Let me confirm with the 2 panel. We are going to go off line and we'll be 3 back on line in just a moment. If you could hold 4 just for, say, about three, four minutes. I'm 5 recessing right now. Thank you.

6 (Recess.)

7 JUDGE TIERNEY: The panel is coming back
8 online. The panel has conferred, and there are no
9 objections to having a reply filed next Wednesday 10 which would be, according to my calendar, the 14th.
11 I do not -- I just wanted to confirm there were no 12 objections from the Patent Owner with regard to the 13 14th.

14 MR. MODI: No, Your Honor.

15 JUDGE TIERNEY: There was one -- are 16 there any further issues from the Petitioner before 17 we turn to the Patent Owner?

18 MR. KUSHAN: No, Your Honor. We had 19 raised one issue earlier when we filed this related 20 to a form issue of the petition, and related issue, 21 but that issue had been indicated to us by email
22 that you didn't want to discuss that per the rule.

1 We don't have any other issues at this point.

2 JUDGE TIERNEY: Let's go to the Patent
3 Owner. Are there any issues that you have for 4 today?

5 MR. MODI: Nothing, Your Honor. Nothing
6 else.

7 JUDGE TIERNEY: There was one issue I
8 would like to raise from the panel. This is Judge
9 Tierney. I was hoping to have a possible further 10 clarification on the -- how to put this -- there are 11 quite a few Virnetx cases before us, and I
12 appreciate the Patent Owner mandatory notices that 13 have been filed in the various cases, but I was 14 hoping, is there a way, do the parties have any 15 charts or any briefing that they would be able to 16 provide to ensure the panel is able to see what 17 we'll say is the big picture of all the cases that 18 are currently before us?

19 I want to make sure that we understand
20 the interrelationship between the different 21 interparty reviews that are currently pending, the 22 patents, and how they relate to each other, et

1 cetera. I was wondering if the parties had 2 materials already prepared on that, or would be 3 willing to provide such materials in the near 4 future, and I'll start with Patent Owner, and then 5 I'll hear from Petitioner.

6 MR. MODI: Your Honor, we don't have 7 anything obviously that's readily available that we 8 can give to the Board, but we are certainly willing 9 to work with the Petitioner to try to come up with 10 something in terms of what the Board wants.

11 JUDGE TIERNEY: Do you have any objection
12 to having such a paper to try and help out the Board 13 better understand the interrelationship between the 14 cases?

15 MR. MODI: No, Your Honor.

16 JUDGE TIERNEY: Let's hear from 17 Petitioner on this.

18 MR. KUSHAN: Sure. Your Honor, we had 19 been asked in a series of petitions last summer from 20 the panel to provide a document summarizing all the 21 proceedings, so we could easily date that or not 22 date it with the new proceedings since that point in

1 time. We'd be happy to just send those over to 2 Patent Owner and make that a joint filing of all the 3 different proceedings showing you which parties and 4 patents, and at what level of granularity you'd like 5 as well. We could map out some of the issues, but 6 it would be relatively easy to do that based on our 7 prior reporting.

8 JUDGE TIERNEY: Why don't we begin with 9 what you provided in the prior reporting, that type 10 of level, and work with the Patent Owner and submit 11 it to us as a joint filing, and if there is further 12 information that we do find that would be 13 beneficial, we will contact the parties and let you 14 know in a follow-up communication. Any questions as 15 to that, Patent Owner? Petitioner? Any questions?

16 MR. KUSHAN: No, Your Honor.

17 MR. MODI: None from us either, Your 18 Honor.

19 JUDGE TIERNEY: Are there any further
20 questions from the panel before we adjourn today?
21 I'll begin with Judge Easthom.

22 JUDGE EASTHOM: Not from me.

1 JUDGE TIERNEY: Judge Scheiner.

2 JUDGE SCHEINER: I have none.

3 JUDGE TIERNEY: Thank you, everyone, for 4 your time today. If any issues arise, let us know
5 or arrange for a conference call. Go ahead.

6 MR. KUSHAN: I apologize, Judge Tierney,
7 the page limits for the reply, I'd like to know what 8 the page limits are because we don't have much 9 precedents --

10 JUDGE TIERNEY: If I remember the rules
11 quickly, it's five pages. I would have to look up 12 the exact rule.

13 MR. KUSHAN: If we are going under the 14 standard rules, we'll just follow those.

15 JUDGE TIERNEY: Is there any need to 16 deviate from five pages?

17 MR. KUSHAN: None, Your Honor.

18 JUDGE TIERNEY: Then we'll expect the 19 five-page limit to stand, and we'll expect a filing 20 next Wednesday. I have it as May 14th.

21 MR. KUSHAN: Thank you very much.

22 JUDGE TIERNEY: Hearing no further

15

1 comments at this time, we are adjourned. Thank you
2 everyone.

3 MR. KUSHAN: Thank you.

4 MR. MODI: Thank you.

6 p.m.)
