Euro Ball Boot Special

Euro-Ball presents a three brand new tutorials. The first one is the "Kits Creation" tutorial by Shai Ziv that explains step-by-step how to create those Fifa 2001 kits. This year, the kits creation is a bit more complicated but with Sha's help everyone can do it. The second tutorial is the "Import-A-Kit" tutorial, written by Nati Tal, and it explains the basics of installing new kits to Fifa 2001 using EA Graphics Editor. It's a very simple process and many questions are asked about it, so here comes the Tutorials to help us all. And now, for the latest addition to our Tutorials section, the Boots Tutorial by Majid Ibrahim. Majid reveals all the secrets and basics of boots editing and it's a great tutorials that explains both about the boots editing and editing Fifa 2001 textures in general!

So take a gander at the way how to make add-ons to the game by going there now

FIFA World Downloads Database

Thimo the man over at FIFA World, a German FIFA 2001 site, has this news regarding his new Downloads Database

On the 5th of November the German site www.fifa-world.net has opened the first Download-Database for FIFA 2001 ever. With a search function, a public download counter and many more features, e.g. the function to show all downloads of one day with a simple click instead of opening several pages.

Now, less than 2 month later, the database has reached the total number of 500 files. There are not less than 192 kits, 65 edited graphics, 42 balls, 25 packs with new music, 12 stadiums and much more!

So if you speak German, you have to check out FIFA World for these 500 files as well as many other exclusive files

Italian Fifa On Line Super Patch is released

Over at Fifa On Line they have released the much awaited Fifa On Line Superpatch version 1.0 (Italian Superpatch)!! In it there are:

- all Italian rosters updated
- International rosters updated
- all kits of Serie A teams
- kits of most important European teams
- Italian referee kit
- generic goal keeper kits
- 2 new stadia:
 - Olimpico of Rome
 - and San Siro of Milan
- new adboards
- new nets
- new balls
- new shoes

Check out these great screen shots:

- Juventus kit
- Lecce kit
- Parma kit
- Verona kit

If you are a fan of the Italian Serie A then this patch is a must so check out the full details of this excellent patch in the Patches Database and then head over to Fifa On Line to grab your copy - it is hot!

Tip: This patch is made for the Italian version of Fifa 2001 (so you will get the "no data" issues if your version is not Italian but is still very playable) and will work very well with your MRA if you:

1. Install the patch into your MRA Patches directory in a new directory say "FOLSP"
2. Move the kits .fsh files in the data/player directory into a new data/player/kits big directory
3. delete the following files from data/player
 - FOLkits.bat.bat
 - FOLkits2.bat.bat
 - installkit.exe

- European Clubs Patch Under Development

I have received the following great story (shortened) from Dimitris Vagianos from HSN (full story can be found over at the MRA site):

"This year the HSN and many helpers worldwide will create the best (personal opinion) patch that has ever been made for the FIFA series. The patch calls itself 'European Clubs Patch' or in shorter ECP. The name European comes because we will have only European Clubs (we won't touch the National Teams) and only one South American Team the Boca Juniors (with kits, rosters, badges, flags) in case you want to play the Toyota Cup Final for the World Champion :~)

The idea started in my mind two weeks before when I really needed to play with great East European Clubs and wasn't able. So I started to contact European guys and I was amazed from their willing mood (a big thank you to the guys from Poland first)

The ECP will feature 80 missing European Clubs from 26 Countries with their kits, flags, badges, rosters and their National Teams. The ECP will also feature Adboards, Balls, signs, TV Logos, new boots and other misc. things

If anyone from you is willing to help just e-mail us (asn@freemail.gr). We want BIG help from anyone fan of the above added Leagues. We need kit creators, rosters maker and graphics designers to be added to our Group. Of course in ECP there will be the kits, the rosters the flags and the badges of the remaining Clubs with their National Teams. Also we will try to create the Champions League Star logo in the sleeves of the participants teams.

The ECP will be released (at least two months the full version or earlier a beta one). The patch will also be compatible with the excellent Sweeppatch MRA

A big thank (so far) to our helpers and if you want to help don't hesitate. The url's are <http://asn.fifa2001.com> for the English Page and <http://go.to/hsn> for the Greek page with information in our language.

Also a new tournament its about to begin in the new year with many members already signed.

Pay the lads a visit and if you are able to assist them then please send them a mail. As always, full details of this patch can be found in the Patches Database

• Sweetpatch MRA is here for your Patching enjoyment

Did you know that the greatest version ever of the Sweetpatch MRA was released this week. The Sweetpatch MRA copies files in and out of your FIFA games and it currently supports:

- FIFA RTWC 98
- World Cup 98
- FIFA 99
- FIFA 2000
- Euro 2000
- FIFA 2001

It achieves this by maintaining a set of patches and favorites which can be copied into and out of your FIFA game as required. It now makes the loading of the new FIFA 2001 kits as easy as 1-2-3.

Full details regarding the features of the MRA can be found here.

Check out the Sweetpatch MRA Downloads section if you have not yet joined the 2,000 other people who are already benefiting from this great utility.

Also at the MRA site Sweetpatch has implemented a brand new Search engine which now makes searching the site a dream.

- FIFA Brasil Network Joins Soccer Gaming

The world's largest Brazilian FIFA site, FIFA Brasil Network (FBN), today became the newest member of Soccer Gaming. The addition of FBN to the Soccer Gaming network is a huge boost for both FBN and Soccer Gaming.

FBN is the premier Brazilian FIFA site and caters for both the FIFA 2001 and FIFA 2000 games. For over a year now they have been providing consistant daily updates on all FIFA news, concentrating highly on Brazilian related patches and downloads.

To celebrate they're relocation to Soccer Gaming, FBN will be releasing they're amazing Copa João Havelange Patch Version 2.0 (see screen shot below) on Sunday. It will include 35 Brazilian teams replacing the MLS and Korean League. All the teams will have real logos, flags and kits. They are also working on a Sportv Graphic Patch 1.0 (see screen shot below) that will be released soon.

I highly recommend everyone pays a visit to the FIFA Brasil Network. It is truly the ultimate FIFA website for any Brazilian FIFA fan. Even if you do not speak Portuguese, I'm sure you'll be able to find some awesome downloads on the site. Look out for regular updates from FBN right here at FIFa 2001 Online.

That's right, mini-download update. Today we have three new files for the football freaks out there. Unfortunately because of an incident with my computer I don't have the utilities to edit any of the photos so you'll have to go on what we say they are. Download the following below :-)

- Holland Competition Update - Contains the newest transfers and correct some players and numbers and also the team tactics.
- France away kit
- Yugoslavia Away Kit

Tomorrow we will have another 20 downloads, just for your "click-happy" pleasure. Keep checking back tomorrow for a load of Downloads!

- Music Manager - Feature Download

The guys at FIFAMANIA.IT have done it again! Today they present to you their brand new FIFA 2001 Music Manager. This awesome program allows you to insert new songs into FIFA 2001 direct from MP3 format. You can even select which ones you wish to play. I personally tried out this program earlier and found it very easy to use and recommend it to everyone. You can download it directly by clicking the link below.

- FIFA 2001 Music Manager (798 KB)

Take a look at a screen shot of the Music Manager in action above. Remember to read the readme.txt file well before using this program.

In other Downloads news, Lior is currently busy with exams. We're hoping to have a huge update for you any day now, but need someone to take control while Lior is away. Maybe Joe or Shamir will come to the rescue :-)

• Download the New Sweetpatch MRA

The news Dave posted earlier about the release of the Sweetpatch MRA has created a lot of discussion. Many people seem confused as to exactly what Sweetpatch MRA does. Good news, I'll explain it all to you.

Well Sweetpatch MRA is the latest version of the very popular FIFA MRA utility program. The great news is that it is now compatible with nearly every version of FIFA. This ofcourse includes our current favourite, FIFA 2001.

So what can I do with Sweetpatch MRA I hear you asking? Well, the "MRA" actually stands for "Multi Roster Assistant". In other words, this program helps you to install new rosters into FIFA games. The bonus with the new Sweetpatch MRA is that not only does it install rosters, but the all important "BIG" files that contain kits, and popups in FIFA 2001 can also be easily installed. We all love to download and read about the big "super" patches that are being created for FIFA 2001, well Sweetpatch MRA makes it very simple to install these super patches. Most super patches that are created these days are MRA compatible. To make your life even easier, Dave has put together a collection of these super patches in his huge Patches Database. News on new and upcoming super patches is added to the Patches Database constantly. For example, keep an eye out at the Patches Database site for news on FIFAMANIA.IT's Italian Super Patch V1.0 which is due out anyday now.

If you enjoy updating your favourite FIFA games, and want to do it in one easy process, I strongly recommend you download Sweetpatch MRA. Check out a screen shot of the program in action above.

I have read a lot about possible cheats in FIFA 2001, but nobody knew how to use them. That's why I had a call with Andy, the boss of the development-team of FIFA 2001 in Canada. He told me the following:

"The cheats, that we've included in the fifa2001 exe, are a fake. The development-teams are already very amused about this joke and it's worldwide consequences. So, there're definitive no cheats in FIFA 2001."

Thanks for the info Stefan. I know many people will be upset about that.

- Fifaseries 2001 Opens

We have received the following news from Xavier:

"Today we officially launch our site. You can browse in our site and have a look of all our projects. You can see the first screenshots of the patch below"

FIFALA 2001 Patch

The best patch in the planet is now under development. We are starting to make the fourth version of its patch, and now for the 2001 game. This international patch will update the leagues from

- Italy (fifaonline.it)
- Brazil (www.fifabrasil.com.br)
- Argentina (Fifaexpress and www.fifa-argentina.com)
- Latin America (www.fifala.com)
- USA (www.fifaseries.com)

You can see some more screen shots from these patches over at the MRA site

▶ Latest from Greek Tournaments

The lads over at Greek Tournaments are near to releasing a beta version of GSP2001. We look forward to this next week.

Also over at Greek Tournaments they have opened up two new sections in their Greek version of the site (and soon in English):

- Downloads
- and a Tutorial for how to play a Matchup game

Sweetpatch has full details of this patch plus many more in the ever expanding MRA Patches Database.

Pay the lads a visit over at Greek Tournaments as they are producing plenty of top quality work

- Latin Graphic Patch 2001 (LGP 2k1)

This weekend FIFA Series will publish the Latin Graphic Patch 2001 (LGP 2k1). Ariel Santarelli from FIFA Express, the creator of the previous LGP patch for FIFA 2000, has amazed us once again with the beta version of this graphic enhancement. If you downloaded the FIFA Latinamerica 2000 patch for FIFA 2000, you can already expect a great final LGP patch.

FIFA Heat Makeover

Yes, even websites can have makeovers (Soccer Gaming does it all the time). This time it's the guys at FIFA Heat have made their site a new. The new FIFA Heat already has hundreds of downloads and replays available for download. For those of you who are just floating around the internet, take a look at the new FIFA Heat.

20 New Downloads Added

Our Downloads section has been updated with 20 exciting new patches and add-ons. Here is are some screen shots and a complete list of today's update

- FC Groningen (screen shot), Egyptian, Champions League (see screen shot below) and 3D ad boards
- Adidas Copa Mundial, Nike Air Zoom (screen shot), Umbro Impulsa (screen shot) and Valsport boots (screen shot)
- Bundesliga badges, Craiova flags, Del Piero's face, Edgar Davids' face, Galatasaray flags, Israeli flags, Sidewinder logo and VfB Stuttgart flags
- Everton (Away), Adidas Champions League referee (see screen shot below), Vitesse Arnhem (Away) and Ajax jerseys

The great news is that Lior is planning another 20 new files this time tomorrow. So keep checking back.

Our Downloads Centre is in its final stages of completion and let me tell you, you're going to hate it!

• FIFA Express Boca Juniors Patch

FIFA Express' Ariel has informed us of their new "Boca Juniors Campeón Intercontinental" patch. This Spanish software mode only patch includes:

- New Boca Junior's and Real Madrid kits
- Tokyo National Stadium Adboards
- PSN TV Logos
- New Flags
- New Balls
- New Menus

Among the other things listed, the patch uses "IGGex 1.0" with new edited graphics. If you're interested head to FIFA Express.

• Iceboy's Everton Kits

From the "coolest" (I amuse myself) man in the FIFA 2001 Forums, Iceboy83, we bring to you the home and away Everton kits. These are one of Iceboy's first kits. Prior to this project, he has made himself well-known by doing some very nice looking boots in FIFA 2001. Don't take my word for his talent, click on an image below to take a look at his work, or click one of the links below to download his creations.

- Everton Away Kit

• 2nd Beta of Sweetpatch MRA is distributed

Following on from Nick's excellent review of the beta version of the latest and greatest Sweetpatch MRA, we have distributed the 2nd beta test version tonight with the aim of releasing the full version within the next week if everything goes to plan.

Features of this version include:

- full compatibility for all Fifa games from 98 including:
 - Fifa RTWC 98
 - World Cup 98
 - Fifa 99
 - Fifa 2000
 - Euro 2000
 - Fifa 2001
- Includes capability to patch in all kits into Fifa 2001 so you can also now use the MRA as your number 1 utility for patching in Super Patches and also individual kits, boots, etc.

We hope you are looking forward to this great new utility so installing kits will be as easy as 1-2-3. More stories over at the MRA site for your enjoyment.

• Sign-ups are Closed!

First off, welcome to December everyone. Secondly, as the headline says, the FIFA 2001 Premiere League sign ups have been completed. The last remaining spots have been filled. If your wondering what the leagues are, check them at Standings section. Once again I remind those in the competition must sign up for the Newsletter. Finally, the message was going out that schedules would be sent December 9th, we have changed that to December 3rd and December 4th. The season will begining December 9th! Good luck to everyone in the competition.

• Flurry of Websites

It's that time of the week for the daily dose of the websites that have been submitted to us by you. Today we have three for you:

- European Cup 2001 for FIFA
- For Brazilian Fans
- FIFA First

Speaking of FIFA First, the webmaster from over there has told us that this is a brand new FIFA 2001 site with downloads, news, and other happenings. With a focus on prize-winning competitions.

Quality Downloads

Today we proudly added some awesome quality downloads to our Downloads Centre. Featured today are 12 new files. As usual we've listed them all, but this time we're going to give you some indepth details on a couple of the feature downloads we added. Check out the shots below:

The shot to the left is Nikita Startcev's latest kit for Valencia. The other screen shot is by a patch maker known as Shiongo. On this occasion he has created a very detailed Rivaldo Face which will make your Rivaldo player in FIFA 2001 look almost life-like. Both of these downloads are featured in the "Recommended" area of the Downloads Centre.

Don't forget the other downloads which were also added today:

- Dutch Rada JC ad boards
- Nike Air Zoom and Adidas Predator boots
- A Portuguese country patch
- New crowds
- A Dutch combo of kits
- Austrian and Hungarian national kits
- A Celtic Park stadium
- A FIFA Add-On utility

With all these new files, plus over 3000 already available, you must pay a visit to the Downloads Centre today.

FIFA Centre News

Another update from Xavier Baez, the man running many sites in the FIFA Community:

"Finally we're operating in a new server and now we'll be able to offer free hosting for all the fifa pages that need unlimited space, subdomains and emails."

Fifala now has a new cgi based News system. That means that now www.fifala.com will be updated more frequently because 5 news posters will keep you updated of the main news of the fifa scene. You're also welcome to enter our new cgi based forum to post all questions about the fifala patches.

To celebrate our relauch we have published a NEW tutorial about the New Generation Kits - NGK. Do you remember the 2GK jerseys that Fifala.com introduced a while ago? Well, now we have discovered a new jersey technique based on Ariel Santarelli's 2GK jerseys. The tutorial includes a new "texture.big" file that will convert all your 2GK kits into NGK kits. But what does "NGK kits" really mean? The NGK kits are the same as the 2GK kits but there's a small difference. The NGK kits work in "Software Mode" plus they occupy less space. The "hlsv" image is not longer used so the size of the kit files is only 147 kb!

Soon we will translate the tutorial to english and post it at fifala's international site www.fifacentre.com

With that said, head on over to FIFA Centre. Along with this, I'm sure Xavier has a lot more things for you to check out over there! So don't delay, go!

- FIFA Hollandia Sound Patch

The webmaster from FIFA Hollandia has sent in this piece of information to tickle the funny bone of those looking for a good music update.

"We have a great music patch (10 Mb). With this patch you can hear music when players make a goal, or get a card. When the win or loose the game you hear music. You can hear the public sing songs, and there is much more. Upcoming music, and champions music. This patch is a little big, but we also have some small music patches. Download them at our Dutch site or at our English site"

Certainly worth a check, would you say? So head on over by clicking the links above, and experience it yourself!

- Fifamilennium is back with a patch per month

That's right, Diego and his team are back and they have some interesting things for this year.

They will publish a patch per month and all the patches they create will be of a high quality graphical design. They have developed a new technology for making stadiums that they have named Z9 and they can now make any structure in less than an hour! Please visit their site for more information about this.

The patch for March 2001 is Libertadores Cup and will contain Copa Libertadores 2001 and full features can be found over at the MRA site.

They also need people to update the English version of their website so if you are interested please e-mail them at diego@fifa.punto.net.ec In the meantime visit www.fifamilennium.com

- Massive Downloads Update - 30 New Files

The weekend that has just left us was full of exciting and memorable (maybe not for Arsenal supporters) football matches. Our Downloads Centre reached the 3000 files mark for the first time and overflowed with equally as exciting downloads. In total we added:

- Champions League ad boards (screenshot)
- Adidas Predator (see screen shot below) and Adidas Precision boots
- 2 English flag updates (screenshot)
- Bayern Munich (screenshot), Leeds United (screenshot), Paris St. Germain (screenshot), Arsenal (screenshot), 2 AC Milan, Glasgow Rangers (screenshot), PSV kits, Olympique Lyon (see screen shot below) kits and a Harchester United kit
- An IK Frej roster update
- A TVB TV (screenshot), DigiTurk and Sky Sports (Beta 3 by Steve Sutton) TV logos
- Greek (screenshot) and Italian badge (screenshot) fixes
- Dario G chants
- EA Graphics editor 0.9.1 (see Nikita's post below)

All of these files are great for everyone who plays FIFA 2001, however the Downloads Centre caters for all FIFA games. Believe it or not, this weekend we even uploaded new FIFA 99 and FIFA 98 files. Check out a full list of what's new for these "older" games on the main page of the Downloads Centre.

Keep an eye out here each day for all the latest downloads for FIFA 2001. Oh, and don't forget to enter the Downloads Centre Competition. It's free and you can win over $2000 worth of football gear and cool computer games and accessories.

• FIFA 2001 Worldwide Revolution

Some big news coming from Stefan Münstedt, as he says it's sensational! He's talking about the ultimate German FIFA 2001 patch "FIFATOLOGY".

With this new patch, it will be possible to display the badges of every team in FIFA 2001 at the start of every match (ingame!) (see screenshots). But that's not all - It will furthermore be possible that every team has its own stadium with its own chants, crowd-textures, different fanblocks, etc. You'll be able to play in great G3-stadiums (thanks to Fifamania!).

Sweet example: If you select Bayern Munich as home-team, the Bayern-logo and the logo of the selected opponent will be displayed in the popup. You'll play in the Olympic Stadium of Munich, with the original Bayern-crowd, with the original chants of the bayern fans and the goalmusic from the Olympic Stadium etc.

If this excites you, as it does for me, Head on over to the official FIFATOLOGY site at www.fifatology.de or go to German FIFA 2001 Online. You can see more screenshots and receive more information at both of the sites.

- EA Graphics Editor 0.9.1 - Released

Today Lior has added the latest version of EA Graphics Editor to the Downloads Centre. Here's what guys from NBA Live Series Center have to say about it:

"The EA Graphics Editor is a general purpose graphics viewer and editor. its intended use is to view and edit Electronic Arts graphic files. It was primarily written for the NBA Live Series, but it will work with a lot of files from the NHL Hockey, FIFA Soccer, Need For Speed and Triple Play Series, too."

For me it's a fast viewer of all kinds of EA's graphic files. Unfortunately it works like a beta and you need to download the latest version when your current version expires.

So if you want to download it press right here and grab a copy of the most popular graphics editor on the net.

- FIFA World - Fußball Manager 2002

Thimo of the German FIFA 2001 site www.fifa-world.net has just sent us some news concerning the new EA Sports project "Fußball Manager 2002". Recently the official homepage of the upcoming has been opened over at www.fm2002.de with loads of information.

"Fußball Manager 2002" is a football manger like the Championship Manager for the English League but it's the first EA Sports project that is developed and designed in Germany. Only the FIFA-Engine is taken from the guys in Vancouver to have spectacular 3D-szenes in the game.

Since April Rolf Langenberg and Gerald Kohler, which have been lead designer of the famous "Anstoß"-series, and their team work on the game. It consist of many people who were webmasters of famous FIFA or Anstoß sites before and that's why they know exactly what the community wants.

Because of EA Sports licences for the German Bundesliga and the austrian max. Bundesliga all the teams will feature real names, kits and badges for a maximum of realism. With many new inventive features the game will probably become a new topseller. A start for EA Sports to produce many games in the countries they are sold?

"Fußball Manager 2002" will only be available in Germany when it is released "when it's done". You want to know more about this great upcoming game?!

Visit the official site www.fm2002.de (only in German though) for more information, screenshots, etc. and check www.fifa-world.net for 2 exclusive screenshots.

- Sky Sports TV Logo update

Steve Sutton, who created the excellent Sky TV logos, would like to make a point clear that if you look at Sky Sports on TV its small and short names can be short for just the playing part of the game. When FEd2001 comes out it will allow you to do this but no worry's if you don't want them short as a lot of people have been asking him. He is going to release an update of beta 2 to beta 3 conversion on Sunday which will include:

- a short name version of beta 3
- the full version of beta 3 if you haven't got beta 2
- and the update version which updates beta 2 to beta 3

There, I hope that is all clear to you now and check back on Sunday to download your copies.

- Polish Fifa Update

Reigon has sent us the following news:

"Thanks to CENTRUM FIFU 2001 our game will be alive again. The new add-on Mega Patch PL will be released soon. This will be a great day for Polish FIFA fans - fully translated, with:

- completely new layout and graphics
- Polish league actual rosters
- kits
- adverts on stadiums
- and many more
- full letter names and realistic players look
- and also all logos

Till the final release is out you can download a preview of Mega Patch PL and you will see - the only thing that's left of the original FIFA 2001 is the engine. :-)

But the patch is only the beginning. We are proud of our weekly posted tutorials about making FIFA add-ons and tutorials about tactics and strategy in the game. Our site is also making a tournament - players who wants to play have only one more week to send a mail to us.

Please hurry! And one more thing - if You have any questions, comments and suggestions regarding the Mega Patch PL please send us an e-mail".

• Scotland Stars Sweetpatch 2001

Over at the MRA site Ramon Vargas has co-ordinated the development of an excellent new patch for all fans of Scottish Football.

Here is what we have to offer. A tribute to a passionate League, the Scottish Premier league, starring all the Scottish stars and the plot of the story is the dispute of the SPL crown.

The plot takes place from Ibrox to Hampden to Celtic Park, the three stadiums in the Scotland Stars Sweetpatch. The armour designed by Ian Black in full fledged glory as the warriors don their club crest proudly as they dispute the coveted prize. Features include:

- Lush, real life replicas of the kits donned by the SPL by Ian Black
- Three fantastically structured stadiums by Gregor Gowans
- Sky Sports TV graphics by Stephen Sutton
- A Scottish and global roster update by Ramon Vargas
- MRA compliant thanks to Matias Reis
- New NHL 2001 crowd
- New turfs, boots, ball. Goalie and Referees kits by Jordan Stavridis
- Soundtrack to be released in the near future

Check out the screen shot above and then check the full features and download your copy of this great new patch directly from the MRA site.

- News from FIFA Centre

Xavier Baez, once again, has some more news from his new FIFA Centre website.

"Fifacentre.com has some exciting news for ALL of the fifa scene,

When SG released the Downloads Centre, I went to download a jersey to check if the people still include GFXPAK in the jersey zip files as well as a BAT program. This is amazing!!! There's absolutely no need to use GFXPAK to install jerseys into the game. This method was discovered and used by Ariel Santarelli, however, people still don't get it!!!

In the new tutorial section of Fifacentre.com not only will you discover how to install Fifa2001 jerseys but you will also know WHY can you install jerseys so easily in the game without even touching the "KITS.BIG" file!!!

And if this doesn't sounds good enough to go and take a look at the new site in the Fifa scene, Fifacentre.com has also published the "Jersey Database". This is the ultimate database for patch developers. This database was made by Ariel Santarelli and it includes the number of the jersey of ALL the teams of ALL the leagues. If you're a patch developer you CAN'T loose your chance to save hours and hours of work!!! Do you want to know what jersey number does your team use in the game???

Come on, take a look at the relaunched Fifa international site - www.fifacentre.com!!! =)"

Well said from Xavier. See what he's talking about and head on over to FIFA Centre.

- G2 Stadium Viewer 2001 - Coming Soon

We have some more great news from FIFAMANIA.IT. This week they will publish a great utility called G2 Stadium Viewer 2001. As Rimo, the webmaster of FIFAMANIA.IT, says himself:

"...this is a utility that will allow you to open G2 rav files, and change assignment between textures and polygons..."

This is great news not only for stadium creators but also for those who want to make the new Nike ball or Premier League Mitre ball for FIFA 2001. I don't know if you would be able to edit ball's structure but I think it can help you much.

Here is a preview screenshot of it:

So don't forget to visit FIFAMANIA.IT site later this week and download this useful utility.

We received first info (on the world :) about FIFA 2002 - we received it from the Polish distributor of EA SPORTS - IM Group on our site the news is in Polish. I've translated it for you :)

We know three things

- FIFA 2002 is not going to put out a Polish language version, this is very sad information for all Polish players
- But at last there will be a Polish footballer on the gamebox, he is also going to give his motion capture into game and he will be in the INTRO OF FIFA 2002 (wow!), we chose him into plebscite.
- FIFA 2002 will be out in October 2001

- FIFA Clubs World League Tourney

Over at FIFA Clubs, Claudio, has sent us an email regarding their World League Tourney. Here is what he had to say:

"The first World League tournament is on its way to the Finals. The new rules for the Final Phase can be found in our 'rules' section. You will also be able to see how the countries have been matched up.

The qualifying phase for the World League shall end on February 28th. The Final Phase for Nations is set to start on March 3rd. The play offs for the single player tournament shall also begin on March 3rd.

So, if you're not a National Team player, you still have over three weeks to try to qualify. If it's too tough for you to make the National Team, try to make it to the 16th spot at least. For only 16 players per league will qualify for the single player tournament. Five countries (due to the enormous amount of players) will have 32 players play offs.

I can't say which of the two tournaments I prefer. The World League will be great fun. For the first time we'll be able to see which country is the best FIFA playing country overall.

The single player tournament will also be exciting. Many players have made it to their respective National Teams because they can't stop playing the game. Some players have played well over 100 tournament matches in these last three months. So the single player tournament will give other players a chance to prove that they should have been on the National Team.

So who will be declared the World Champions at the end of March? Will it be Argentina, Belgium, Brazil, England, Holland or Italy? Or will it be some outsider? It could be one of the 'continent' leagues ... And who will be the best player?

If you feel you have something to prove, join the Fifa Clubs tournament now and help your country win the World League."

You should not be reading this if you are a "true" FIFA Fan. -)You should have already clicked before the bottom! So, get on over there and show your true colours!

- Greek Tournaments News

Kostas Kyriopoulos from Greek Tournaments has some news for you and asked us to post them.

First of all they have released a new 32bit GT Hybrid jersey. This time for another Greek team Olympiakos Piraeus. Here is what they have to tell about it:

"It's the Olympiakos Piraeus Domestic 75th Anniversary home jersey. Lots of work and time went into this one. The detail on this jersey is stunning. We have even put the 75th Year transparent logo under the Siemens sponsor just like the real thing. 75th logos can also be found on the sleeves and small Siemens ones on the shorts."

This kit is really amazing. Here you can have a look at it:

To download go to the Greek Tournaments site

Also they are looking for someone to help them out with converting 32bit GT Hybrid to normal kits. You ask what for? It's because 32bit GT Hybrid technique doesn't work with software rendering video cards. Kostas says that they are very busy with many other stuff and just don't have enough time for it. If you are interested send them a letter.

And finally they are also looking for help with their Greek Chants Patch Uncut. They need peoples who can find chants for them. In particular they need "1-2-3 Ga---tai h Dietsia" and for the whistles heard from the fans when a bad call is made from the referee or a bad play. So if you can help them with this send a email to Mike P.

That's all Kostas Kyriopoulos have to say for now.

- FIFA First Competition!

FIFA First have just launched two sites on www.fifafirst.net. They have opened the second of our exclusive FIFA First shops which now sells all the latest PC, Playstation, and Playstation 2 games and hardware at special discount prices.

To celebrate the opening of the shop they have secured three Playstation 2 consoles which are available from FIFA First direct. The second new page to open on FIFA First is the World League. The league will have 80 places available from the start. The competition will be played over 5 rounds. The league is starting to fill up so reserve your place in the FIFA First world league.

The league itself is one of the very few leagues on the net to offer prizes to the winners and losers in the competition. See www.fifafirst.net or www.fifafirst.com for more information!

The guys over at Greek Tournaments have just released some new kits. These kits use new technique called 32bit GT Hybrid. Actually it's the same 32 bit technique but it uses some EURO 2000 jersey design. Here is what they have to say about it:

"This way we obtain sharpness, maximum color usage and most important of all the shine and reflection effect when viewing close-up shots."

So give it a try. Maybe you'll like it more than the original 32 bit technique. Here are 2 screenshots.

- FEEd2001: New Screen Shots & Info

What a day it has been here at Soccer Gaming. We've announced the release date of our incredible Downloads Centre (see below) and now we've just received, direct from Chau Le (the author of FEEd2001), two new FEEd2001 Screen Shots along with exciting details on a new FEEd2001 feature. Take a look at the two shots below by clicking on them and then read on...

These two shots reveal the Export and Import features of the new "FEEd Files" in FIFA 2001. Chau explains that

"The Export function means you can export an entire league or just one team to files and share them with other users. While the Import function allows you to import a whole league or individual team to the game from the exported files."

These new features will make downloading and installing new files a breeze. When using FEEd2001 you'll be able to easily import the files you've download from our new Downloads Centre into the game. This new feature will set a new standard in FIFA 2001 roster, kit, badge and flag patches making them far more easy to distribute and install. This year, FEEd2001 is not only the ultimate editor, but the ultimate utility too!

FEEd2001 will be a quick addition to the "must-have" FIFA program list alongside other pertinent programs such as Sweetpatch MRA

We'd love to hear your comments and questions on FEEd2001. Please post them in the FEEd2001 Forum

- Tip of the Day - No more "no data" messages!

That is correct, I expect most of you have downloaded a foreign patch and then found that you cannot read the menu options as all you are presented with is "no data". Well no longer folks!

Ed McAndrew, who is a proud Glasgow Rangers fan, contacted me following the release yesterday of the Eifa On Line Superpatch 1.1 to instruct that you can get around this issue. If you have not yet cracked this solution then here it is so you can now enjoy all foreign patches.

1. On the first "no data" screen you will see 4 "no data"s, click on the 3rd one (Options menu)
2. Then at the next screen you will see 6 "no data"s, click on the 3rd one (Select Language option)
3. Change it to your required language and enjoy!

Thanks to Ed for this handy tip and I hope you can now all enjoy your favorite patches from around the world. Check out this and more handy tips over at the MRA site

• FED2001 FAQ Plus New Screen Shot

As promised, I have just finished uploading the official FED2001 FAQ page, full of the answers to the questions you've all been asking for months. This very detailed FAQ was put together by SCTW. If this isn't enough, we've also uploaded another new screen shot of FED2001. This new shot reveals the never before seen "Player Properties" section. Click on it below for a full sized view.

What excited me about all of this FED2001 news is the Face Manager capabilities. Take a read of one of the FAQs Chau Le answered:

"Will we be able to add customized faces to players who have generic faces like add a Rivaldo face or a Figo's face without changing one of the generic faces of the game?"

Yes you can assign up to 512 unique faces to the players."

This new feature is surely going to lead to some incredible patches. Just imagine the capabilities of assigning up to 512 different faces to various players in the game. That is nearly an entire league of players who can be running around in the game with their real faces. Unreal!

By reading the very comprehensive FED2001 FAQ I also learnt that you can add up to 64 teams into the Rest Of The World league. These are just one of many features of this must-have editor.

I am personally excited about FED2001... I hope you are too because it will truly add a whole new dimension of fun to FIFA 2001. Keep checking back here regularly for all the latest FED2001 developments.
