- Moby Equals Mobile Disfunction

Really? I was really never good at Math. Actually that has nothing to do with anything at all. Of course, when it is a crazy title like that it usually means more downloads for you and your disfunctions:

- Argentina National, Dinamo Bucuresti (screenshot) & Egyptian National team patches
- Bayern Munchen Champion League Away (see screenshot below) Newcastle United 01-02 Away, Glasgow Rangers 01-02 Home & Away (see screenshot below) & Real Madrid 2GK 01-02 Home kits (screenshot)
- Champions League Black Ball v1.1 (screenshot)
- Romario face (screenshot)

Bayern Munich Champions League Away and Rangers Home and Away Kits

Go downloads some nice fresh downloads from the Downloads Centre, grab a warm and fresh brownie, and you'll be muttering things just as weird as "Moby equals Mobile Disfunction".

- SoccerGameZ Opening

The other night, a new website called SoccerGameZ was launched. With a decent intro, the Dutch gaming site GameZ.nl, entered a whole new genre of gaming. It looks like a great site for all the FIFA fans out there. At least Dutch if you can read Dutch.

When you enter the site you will be greeted by a Flash show, all in English. Once you get in the site, however, it is all in Dutch. Do not be fooled as I was.

The URL for this newest addition to our community is <http://www.soccergamez.com>. It contains downloads, forums, site reviews, news, and many other cool things. Why not head on over for a peek at what they've got?

- We Help You. Now We Need Your Help!

Everyday we bring you the latest in FIFA and Soccer news, reviews, articles, and some of the best forum (and forum members) around. This, of course, is all for free. For the good of the game. Despite this, we have one little request and it would be great if you could support us on this small quest we are trying to have fun with. It's the Webby Awards. Coming in late, with only a week, we would want to make a presence in our community!

Two minutes out of your time is all we ask. All you have to do is go to <http://www.webbyawards.com/peoplesvoice/>, quickly register (just need to fill in email and name) so you can get your password. Then click on Vote and go to the Games section. All you must do there is type in on the fill-in vote is "Soccer Gaming Network" and the URL of course www.soccerygaming.com.

It is just a small little thing we decided to try out for fun. Any help is appreciated and any vote is like gold to us. It shows us that people are really enjoying our sites. Thanks a lot!

- Soccered Broadens Horizons

We got this from Soccered's Robert Marney. Give it a read:

"Yesterday we relaunched the site, with many new features, and sections. The most notable change is that of our design. It is no longer limited and confused, now we have a more robust design. The design coupled with the new search functions, mailing lists, and news headlines makes the site more enjoyable to use.

We have opened the following sections:

- A Uefa Challenge Section
- A European Super League Section
- A Fifa 2002 Section
- A Managerial Section
- An a ISS 2PE section

"those sections are created with very little content at the moment, but we have already started to build up the database.

Soccered.com is also the only site that offers Uefa Challenge downloads, so no one misses the opportunity to improve that game.

in the Fifa 2001 section, we have opened the 'top 10 patch section' which offers reviews, and information on the top 10 patches at that moment in time. Schmeichel01 has also put together a good kit tutorial for people using Paint Shop Pro. We are expecting news of our latest patch RDSP II shortly. So all in all I suggest everyone heads to www.soccered.com today!"

• Awesome news from FIFAMANIA.NET

Over at the MRA site they have news from FIFAMANIA.NET who will soon be releasing the biggest FIFA 2001 patch ever seen: BR2001 v2.0, with about 170 teams. It will contain:

- 120 Brazilian teams, including "classic" teams from the past, such as:
 - Flamengo 1981
 - Santos 1962/63 and
 - of course, Brazil 1970/1994
- Also, there will be 50 teams from the rest of Latin America (check the MRA site for full list of countries and teams)
- and their "classic" teams as well
- Besides these 170 teams, some of FIFA 2001's national teams will be updated, and new ones will be created (such as Venezuela, Ecuador, Bolivia)

You can help them complete this great patch - just send pictures of "real" uniforms to marcos@fifamania2001.com, or FEEd 2001 TEA files (yes, BR2001 v2.0 is being developed in FEEd2001!). Your name (or nickname) will then appear in the credits, and that's a good reason to help them out.

- New Fifala Feature!

Xavier Baez explains to us that a new feature is available at Fifala. In his own words:

"I have released 'Fifala 2.0 Interactive Zone'. This new version of fifala changes contents (such as online league results, most downloaded files, latest local soccer results, special offers with our auction partner mercadolibre.com) You can choose among the best offers in your local country. And if you register for free, you'll receive the 'Best of Fifala' in a CD (with over 180 Megabytes in patches)

We have made a partnership with mercadolibre and thanks to this new system, by using a complex system of Java applets, scripts, CGI, PHP, and SSI, we are now able to offer you an interactive Fifala page, that will change according to your country. Really nice! Worth a look! Fifala, now better than ever!"

Sounds like a revolution in FIFA websites. I have checked it out and if you can read Spanish (or if you are just curious) it is definitely worth your time! Head on over to Fifala right now!

Hear the Downloads

A wise man once said, "I hear voices, and they don't like you". Well, we sure do hear voices, but they're telling us to keep you informed about the daily downloads from the Downloads Centre. We better get cracking at showing you today's group of downloads, because those voices do some crazy things when you don't do what they want.

- Olimpico Di Roma RS (see screenshot below) & Olimpico SS Lazio RS stadiums (screenshot)
- Bayern Munchen 2GK Home, Away & Champions League (screenshot) & Rangers 2GK Home & Away kits
- Funny But Realistic & RTWC 2002 Gameplay patches
- Face Package Volume IV (see screenshot below) in the FIFA 2001 Faces section
- Barcelona menu (screenshot)

Face Package Volume IV and Roma Stadium

It's those voices again. They keep telling me to say "I like Liver". Make it stop, make it stop! They keep saying it. Do you like Liver? I like liver, we all like liver. I think you should like liver!

(Note: Joe Lemon's views of liver is a personal opinion, and does not reflect Soccer Gaming and its affiliates views of liver)
