FIFA 09 - Adidas Live Season

Gone are the days of static statistics, FIFA 09's innovative update system means that player data is updated every week according to individual performances. If a player has a blinding game, that form will be reflected when you next load up the game. Whether or not Human Rights FC will have 200 billion pounds of disposable income available remains to be seen.

If only FIFA 09 had a feature like this, said Xbox 360 World in its review of the game... Reply 0 /0 ± ±

If I was playing my mate, and Rooney decided to balloon a shot over the bar just because he had a crap game on Saturday against Stoke, I wouldn't be too happy! Reply 0 /0 ± Edit Delete

But you would play more attention to players performance week in week out. Besides you can turn it off if you so choose. Reply 0 /0 ± Edit Delete

It's a great idea and it's nice that you get one league free, but this whole thing should just be incorporated into the game with needing subscriptions, it really should. Reply 0 /0 ± Edit Delete

Nice idea. But paying for it is not so nice. Reply 0 /0 ± Edit Delete

I've always wanted something like this but assumed they'd never put it in because it would eat into their sales for the next game ... Reply 0 /0 ± Edit Delete
