There are only two lines in this entire declaration that are flagged as being Protective Order Material that were redacted in the public version of this, and neither of them were discussed. So if you are unwilling to withdraw your request for redaction or designation of the transcript, then I say we need to get on the phone with the Board immediately. MR. LEE: Go ahead. MR. SOMMER: You would like to call the Board on this?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	this, you can. But I'm saying this is there is no question that this is Protective Order Material. It has been designated as an exhibit in this transcript, and that's why I'm marking this as transcript as Protective Order Material. MR. SOMMER: I'd like to go through the actual transcript, since we have just asked for the court reporter not to bind Exhibit 2004, for every reference to the Bims' declaration, which is the sole basis that you have identified for me as being the reason that you're going to designate the transcript in its entirety under the Protective Order because I don't want to deal with motions to seal. It's a cost issue. It's a waste of time and money for my client. So I'm going to do this right now. We're going to go through the transcript. MR. LEE: Not going to discuss this right now. MR. SOMMER: Well, Counsel, if I need to get on the phone with you to meet and confer over this again, then to call the Board, I'm going to seek my fees. I'm nearly $900 an hour. MR. LEE: You can call the Board right now if you want.
