v.

MELANOSCAN LLC,
Patent Owner

Case No. IPR2017-02125

Patent No.: 7,359,748

PATENT OWNER'S MOTION TO SEAL

I. Introduction

On September 20, 2018, the Parties filed the Default Protective Order as an Agreed Proposed Protective Order (Paper No. 29) (“Protective Order”) in this proceeding.

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 42.14 and 37 C.F.R. 42.54, Patent Owner hereby requests permission to seal Patent Owner’s Opposition to Petitioner’s Motion to Exclude (Paper No. 42).

Patent Owner will file a public, redacted version of this document.

II. Good Cause for Sealing Confidential Information

A party may file a motion to seal a document concurrently with the filing of such document. 37 C.F.R. § 42.14. The Board may grant such motion for good cause. 37 C.F.R. § 42.14.

Good cause to seal Patent Owner’s Opposition exists here. Under the Protective Order, Patent Owner designated certain portions of the transcript of the deposition of Dr. Rhett Drugge taken September 20, 2018 as containing or reflecting confidential information of Patent Owner. On October 2, 2018, Petitioner filed a copy of the transcript with the Board (Exhibit 1039), along a Motion to Seal the exhibit (Paper No. 36).

Petitioner’s Motion to Exclude cites to and contains or reflects designated portions of the transcript. In responding to Petitioner’s Motion, Patent Owner’s Opposition includes or reflects designated portions of the transcript. In order to maintain the confidentiality of Patent Owner's information, sealing of Patent Owner's Opposition is necessary.

Therefore, Patent Owner has shown good cause to seal the Opposition.

III. Conclusion

For the above reasons, Patent Owner requests that the Board grant this Motion to file Patent Owner's Opposition to Petitioner's Motion to Exclude under seal.
