

monitor

[mon-i-ter]

* * *

verb (used with object)

14. Radio and Television.
 - a. to listen to (transmitted signals) on a receiving set in order to check the quality of the transmission.
 - b. to view or listen to (television or radio transmissions) in order to check the quality of the video or audio.
 - c. to listen to (a radio conversation or channel); keep tuned to.
15. to observe, record, or detect (an operation or condition) with instruments that have no effect upon the operation or condition.
16. to oversee, supervise, or regulate:
to monitor the administering of a test.
17. to watch closely for purposes of control, surveillance, etc.; keep track of; check continually:
to monitor one's eating habits.

verb (used without object)

18. to serve as a monitor, detector, supervisor, etc.