Counsel,

From the Board –

In light of the impending settlement between Petitioner and Patent Owner, the Board requests that Patent Owner inform the Board whether it withdraws its request for preliminary guidance. The Board authorizes the parties to file a joint stipulation to move Due Date 2 for Petitioner's Reply and Opposition to Motion to Amend from May 4, 2023 to May 18, 2023.

Dear Honorable Board:

I am lead counsel for the Petitioner in the above-captioned proceedings. Pursuant to the Board's authorization and Joint Stipulation to Modify the Scheduling Order (Paper 19 in both proceedings), Due Date 2 for the Petitioner's Reply and Opposition to Motion to Amend is currently set for May 4, 2023.

In light of the impending settlement between Petitioner and Patent Owner, I write to seek authorization from the Board to file a joint stipulation to move Due Date 2 to May 18, 2023.

The parties have agreed to settle the parallel district court cases and are currently working on a settlement agreement. In light of the impending settlement, the parties respectfully request authorization from the Board to file the joint stipulation to move Due Date 2.

With best regards,

Pat Doody
