

Priya Arora

Associate

parora@cooley.com

+1 650 843 5384

Palo Alto

Intellectual Property Litigation

Patent Office Litigation

Technology

Life Sciences

Agricultural Sciences & Technology

Priya Arora's practice focuses on intellectual property litigation with an emphasis on patent litigation. She has worked with a diverse range of technologies, including pharmaceutical formulations, antibody therapeutics, computer software, social networking and content management systems.

While attending Santa Clara University, she received the High Tech Excellence Award, CALI Award for Academic Excellence in Legal Issues of Startup Businesses, and the Emery Merit Law Scholarship. Priya also competed in the Giles Sutherland Rich Memorial Moot Court Competition, placing in the semi-finals in the regional round. She also served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Paul S. Grewal of the US District Court for the Northern District of California.

Priya is fluent in Hindi.

Publications:

- Pharmaceutical Innovations in India: Balancing the Value of Incremental Innovations (2014) 5 SCC J-17
- A Biochemical-Biophysical Study of Hemoglobins from Woolly Mammoth, Asian Elephant, and Humans, Biochemistry (Aug. 2, 2011)

Education

Santa Clara University School of Law
JD, 2014

Carnegie Mellon University
BS, 2011, Biological Sciences, with honors, Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi

Admissions & Credentials

California

India

Court Admissions

