CAUTION: This email has originated from a source outside of USPTO. PLEASE CONSIDER THE SOURCE before responding, clicking on links, or opening attachments.

Dear Board,

I am counsel for Petitioner Hongene in IPR2023-00862 and IPR2023-00875 (both Hongene v. ChemGenes), which are subject to a joint schedule.

I am writing on behalf of the Parties to respectfully request modest adjustments to the Joint Scheduling Order entered in these cases (Paper 7).

Petitioner's expert declarant, Dr. Baran, has limited availability for deposition due to international travel in the beginning of January. In view of this and the upcoming holidays and travel, the parties have agreed to conduct his depositions for both IPRs on January 22. Doing this, however, would require some scheduling revisions to maintain an orderly sequence of subsequent events. Accordingly, the Parties have met and agreed to the following proposed adjustments to the schedule, leaving all other due dates intact:

- Move Due Date 1 from January 16 to February 5;
- Move Due Date 2 from April 9 to April 22;
- Move Due Date 3 from May 21 to June 3; and
- Move Date 5 for Petitioner's Sur-reply only from July 2 to July 8. (Leaving Due Date 5 for motion to exclude evidence as is, on July 2).

The Parties respectfully request the Board grant these proposed changes to the Scheduling Order.

The Parties are available for a conference call, if so desired by the Board, at the following times:

Friday, December 15: 8:30am-11:30am

Tuesday, December 19: before noon

Thursday, December 21: before noon

Friday, December 22: any time

If there is another time the Board prefers, the Parties will work to accommodate the Board's schedule.

Best regards,

JEREMY J. EDWARDS
