

ABOUT US

FreeWheel, a Comcast company, provides comprehensive ad platforms for publishers, advertisers, and media buyers. Powered by premium video content, robust data, and advanced technology, we're making it easier for buyers and sellers to transact across all screens, data types, and sales channels. As a global company, we have offices in nine countries and can insert advertisements around the world.

A UNIFIED SOLUTION

Our technology enables frictionless transactions between buyers and sellers. Our software connects clients to their partners across the ecosystem – MVPDs, other publishers, DSPs, and buy-side providers of technology, data, and measurement. We combine this with the ability to transact across screens, anywhere in the world.

CAREERS

At FreeWheel, we value creativity, ingenuity, and inclusion. Visit our Careers page to learn what it's like to work here and view our open positions.
