

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

BEFORE THE PATENT TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

SAMSUNG ELECTRONICS CO., LTD.,
Petitioner,

v.

WARD PARTICIPATIONS B.V.,
Patent Owner.

Case PGR2022-00007
Patent 10,992,480

DECLARATION OF ASHLEY A. BOLT IN SUPPORT OF PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR PRO HAC VICE ADMISSION

I, Ashley A. Bolt, being duly sworn and upon oath, hereby declare the following:

1. I am a member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas and U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.
2. I have not been suspended or disbarred from practice before any court or administrative body.
3. I have never had an application for admission to practice before any court or administrative body denied.
4. No sanction or contempt citation has been imposed against me by any court or administrative body.
5. I have read and will comply with the Office Patent Trial Practice Guide and the Board's Rules of Practice for Trials set forth in part 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.
6. I will be subject to the USPTO Rules of Professional Conduct set forth in 37 C.F.R. §§ 11.101 et seq. and disciplinary jurisdiction under 37 C.F.R. § 11.19(a).
7. In the past three years, I have not applied for pro hac vice admission in any matter before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board. I am currently applying for admission pro hac vice in IPR2022-00113, PGR2022-00007 and IPR2022-00114.

8. I received a B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Alabama in 2012 and a J.D. degree from Emory University School of Law in 2015. I am an experienced litigation attorney with more than 6 years of experience representing clients in cases involving electrical and computer technology. I regularly litigate patent cases before various U.S. district courts around the country, the International Trade Commission, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (including multiple appeals from the PTAB). Through my experience in patent litigation matters, I have represented clients in many phases of litigation, from initial pleadings through trial and appeal. My biography is attached hereto as Appendix A.

9. I am intimately familiar with the issues and subject matter presented in this above-captioned post grant partes review proceeding. For example, I have extensively reviewed the above identified patent, its prosecution history, the Petition for PGR (including the invalidity grounds therein, and the cited references) and all exhibits filed in this case.

10. I declare that all statements made herein of my knowledge are true, and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true, and that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: September 27, 2022

About Ashley

Ashley Allman Bolt is an associate in the litigation group in the Atlanta office of Fish & Richardson P.C. Ashley's practice focuses on patent litigation in various U.S. district courts and the U.S. International Trade Commission. Ashley has experience in nearly all phases of litigation, including drafting discovery requests and responses, preparing claim constructions and accompanying briefing, drafting invalidity and infringement contentions, managing document collection and production, drafting motions for summary judgment, preparing experts for deposition, and performing various other litigation-related tasks.

Ashley most recently joined the firm after serving as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Kimberly A. Moore of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit from 2019 to 2020. Ashley was previously an associate and a summer associate of the firm. During law school, she served as a legal extern at Georgia Lawyers for the Arts, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing legal assistance and educational programming to artists and arts organizations in Georgia. Ashley also participated in the TI:GER program, a multidisciplinary program focusing on the legal and business issues that arise during technology commercialization.
