

Galatians

A Fight For Freedom

A little letter with a BIG problem:

Galatians 1:6-9, 3:1-5, 5:8-12, 6:12-13

We have to remember:

Acts 13:1-14:28

Who Paul was:

Who the Chosen People were:

Who was reading this letter:

Our “So what?”

Galatians, 1 Corinthians 6:12-20

Our _____ can't be made into their _____.

We are saved by _____,
but a saving faith will never _____.

Faith + Legalism:

Can save us, but it is _____ and _____.

Faith + License to sin:

Is just a _____ with no saving _____.

“The grace that does not change my life will not save my soul.”

We are saved by FAITH ALONE,

Faith + Legalism:

Can save us, but it is PRIDEFUL and DEAD.

Faith + License to sin:

Is just a BELIEF SYSTEM with no saving POWER.

Food for Thought for the week of May 30, 2021
(Readings and questions for the further study of the Book of Galatians)

---

As we continue in our “27” series through the summer, now would be a great time to get a little notebook for your Food for Thought notes so you can have your entire New Testament study in one place.

Monday – Chapter 1: Read and write down Paul’s concern for the church, and the proof that he gives of his words being true.

Tuesday – Chapter 2: Paul takes a hard stance against legalism in this chapter, and yet he also addresses the foolishness of living a life without rules. In your own words write out how this chapter defines a life without legalism but still involving obedience?

Wednesday – Chapters 3 & 4: Write down the benefits of the Old Testament law, and in your own words explain why obedience to the law by itself cannot save us.

Thursday – Chapter 5: “Freedom” can be a tricky word for some Christians. Make notes of the type of freedom we have in Christ and the role the Holy Spirit plays in us living in that freedom.

Friday – Chapter 6: What encouragement does Paul give for our own personal walk with God and our relationship with other Christians?
