Life Group Study Questions

For the week of April 25, 2021

QUICK REVIEW

Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or something that caught your attention, challenged or confused you?

MY STORY

1. Love is widely talked about in our world in a variety of ways. Thinking about what you have heard from popular culture, music, movies, television, books, etc., what are some words, phrases, quotes or song lyrics often used to describe love?

1 John 4:8 tells us that God is love. Looking at the descriptions you gave in your answer above, if you were to replace "love" with "God," would the statements line up with what you know about God? Explain.

2. Think of a person in your life who loves others well. What about them or their actions demonstrates love?

What impact has this person had on your life?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. This weekend, Larry explained that when something doesn't come naturally to us, we learn how to do it by "painting by numbers." 1 Corinthians 13 helps us break down the concept of love into smaller segments we can understand, much like painting by numbers. How might the principles of love laid out by Paul in this chapter be challenging for us to do or understand?

1 Corinthians 13 New International Version (NIV)

If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. ² If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵ It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶ Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. ⁷ It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

⁸ Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰ but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. ¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. ¹² For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

¹³ And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Larry summarized the list of attributes from verses 4-7 with five questions:

- Am I harsh? (love is patient, kind)
- Do I have to win? (does not envy, does not boast, is not proud)
- Am I self-centered? (does not dishonor, is not self-seeking)
- Do I have a short fuse? (is not easily angered, keeps no record of wrongs)
- Am I cynical? (does not delight in evil, rejoices with truth, protects, trusts, hopes, perseveres)

Looking at these five questions, which one is hardest for you...

In your home?

With strangers?

With people you disagree with?

Have you noticed any of the elements of love in the list becoming more natural for you over time? If so, explain.

2. Serve Your City's "Love Week" is about loving people with intention. It's an opportunity to bring people closer to Jesus by radiating His love. 1 John 4:7-21 describes the connection between God's love and our love for others. What words or phrases in this passage do you find most motivating for you to love others?

1 John 4:7-21 New International Version (NIV)

⁷ Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸ Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. ⁹ This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. ¹⁰ This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. ¹¹ Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. ¹² No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us. ¹³ This is how we know that we live in him and he in us: He has given us of his Spirit. ¹⁴ And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. ¹⁵ If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in them and they in God. ¹⁶ And so we know and rely on the love God has for us. God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them. ¹⁷ This is how love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment: In this world we are like Jesus. ¹⁸ There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love. ¹⁹ We love because he first loved us. ²⁰ Whoever claims to love God yet hates a brother or sister is a liar. For whoever does not love their brother and sister, whom they have seen, cannot love God, whom they have not seen. ²¹ And he has given us this command: Anyone who loves God must also love their brother and sister.

As you think about the community around you (family, friends, neighbors, coworkers, etc.), is there someone in your life or on your path who might benefit from an intentional act of love this week?

What are some practical ways you might be able to give of yourself or your time for someone else this week?
(See ideas at the end of the Study Questions for inspiration.)

Finding a simple, easy way to love someone is good—do it! Is there something that would also stretch you more and have a bigger impact?

TAKING IT HOME

1. As we round out our three weeks in Serve Your City with focusing on intentionally loving others this week, what has been your biggest takeaway from the Give, Serve or Love weeks?

Which of the three has been most challenging or exciting for you to take part in?

Have there been any moments in which you have seen God move or have been encouraged?

LOVE WEEK IDEAS

To give you some inspiration and ideas, here is a list of possible ways you can intentionally love someone around you this week.

- Write a letter or an email encouraging someone. Include a verse that gives encouragement.
- Reach out to a new neighbor and invite them to dinner or coffee.
- Share your story with someone about how you came to a relationship with Jesus. Tip: Share more if they're interested and less if they're not.
- Surprise a friend with a gift on their doorstep.
- Invite someone to church or send them the Daily Dose or the sermon.
- Ask your husband or wife how you can be praying for them. If unmarried, offer to pray for a coworker or friend. Follow up with them a few days later!
- Donate a meal to a homeless shelter or meal train.
- Leave a Post-it note with words of affirmation for your co-worker or someone in your household that says "You are_____."
- Buy a meal for someone who is asking for money.
- Spend time mending a relationship that could use a little work.
- Stop for someone on the side of the road (always be safe). Ask about their story while you help.
- Take on a major task for someone at work or in your household.
- Give your time to a grandparent. Ask them about their life. If the opportunity presents itself, ask them about their faith.
