This presentation provides a practical, down-to-earth explanation of what moral relativism is (the notion that all beliefs are relative and there is no such thing as "objective" truth) and how to recognize its more subtle forms. Patrick exposes the seven fatal flaws of moral relativism, offers sample dialogues for speaking with moral relativists, and he explains how Catholics can respond to moral relativist arguments in a friendly yet effective way.

*Patrick Madrid has authored or edited 23 books on Catholic themes including, Why Be Catholic?, Search and Rescue, How to do Apologetics, Life Lessons, and the multi-volume Surprised by Truth series and many others. Mr. Madrid earned a B.S. in business management, as well as a B.Phil. in philosophy and an M.A. in theology at the Pontifical College Josephinum in Columbus, Ohio.*

He and his wife Nancy have been married for 34 years and have 11 children and 17 grandkids.

After an intermission for refreshments and a book signing by Mr. Madrid, who will have many of his books, DVDs, and CDs available, a lively question-and-answer session with extended audience participation will follow the presentation.
