Fr. Anthony was born April 2, 1972 in Brooklyn, New York. His family moved to Scottsdale, Arizona, when he was nine, where his parents, brother and sisters still live. As a teenager he became involved with the Confirmation program and later with Life Teen, discovering his vocation working with youth and families.

After several semesters studying architecture and studio arts at Arizona State University, he joined the Legionaries of Christ in 1994. He received his bachelor's degrees in philosophy and theology at the Athenaeum Regina Apostolorum in Rome. He also completed a year of classical studies of Latin, Greek and the Liberal Arts in Salamanca, Spain. As an intern he spent three years in Córdoba, Argentina. He was a seminary instructor in Rome and Cheshire, CT for three years and served as Vice Rector of the Center for Higher Studies in Thornwood, New York. He has ministered to the faithful as spiritual director and retreat director over the last several years in Washington DC, Raleigh NC, and Dallas, Texas.

Fr Anthony currently resides in San Jose, California, and serves as assistant chaplain for Canyon Heights Academy, a Regnum Christi preK-8 school. He also serves as chaplain for the Young Catholic Professionals of Silicon Valley and local superior of the community of Legionaries who serve in the diocese of San Jose and surrounding cities. He has taken 9 pilgrimages to the Holy Land and loves to share how these experiences bring our Faith to life.
