

PSYCHOLOGY OF IELTS

CLEAR YOUR IELTS
DOUBTS

A BOOK BY Think
CANADIAN

Think →
CANADIAN Bathinda

 9888214516

What difference do you feel about the way students prepare for IELTS nowadays and they used to prepare a decade back?

The biggest difference is that Nowadays students are in a big hurry, they don't have patience. If we look back to when the IELTS tests started in India, Then there was a condition that if a student didn't get required bands scores then he had to wait for 90 days before filling the next IELTS test, so students used to prepare for IELTS with full patience as they knew it quite well that if they didn't clear the test they had to wait for a long period before the next test. Now the scene is different, if any student doesn't clear his IELTS test, he is ready to fill the next test as soon as he receives the result.

Why do most of the students in Punjab face so much difficulty while speaking English?

The main reason behind this is that they don't get a good environment for English speaking in schools or at homes. That's the reason why they face difficulty in English speaking. The best solution is that if a student does practice with help of some tools, he can easily learn to speak English like Hindi or Punjabi. To know about these tools, the students can visit our institute.

Think
CANADIAN →

There are so many institutes in my area, how to decide which one is right?

With the help of counseling, you can easily decide about a suitable institute for you. Nowadays most of the students see the fees and brand as big factors, actually what matters the most is that, is there any experienced teacher? Because with the proper guidance of the right teacher, a student can clear his exam in the first attempt and save money by not repeating his IELTS exams.

Nowadays strength of students is around 50 to 70 students per class; what do you feel about whether the strength of students should be high or less in number?

If the strength of students in a class is that much higher then the teacher won't be able to pay individual attention towards all the students; and as a result, students can't prepare for the IELTS properly. So that's why students must consider this factor before joining any institute.

Think →
CANADIAN

In the Listening module of IELTS, I can't understand foreigner / British accent, so my listening module is not going well, what should I do?

Start listening to the news more and more, make it a habit of watching English movies with subtitles. Then you will start to understand the meaning; and as a result, you won't feel any difficulty regarding listening at all.

How can I decide whether I am ready for IELTS Exam or Not?

You can decide it with the help of your teacher who can evaluate your performance and tell you when you are ready for the exam. If you want to evaluate your performance before the exam, then you can also come to our institute, Our IELTS expert (with the experience of 17yr) will help you with this task.

Think →
CANADIAN

Which is the suitable city for the exam?

It doesn't really matter where you fill your exam; the main thing is that your preparation should be strong enough to clear the exam.

If my exam is on the next day, should I give rest to my brain before the exam or should I practice more?

According to the experience of our expert IELTS trainer- It would be better if you stop practicing 2 days before the exam, and give proper rest to your mind. Then you won't feel stress during the exam and you can focus fully during the exam.

My friend is intelligent, if he has not cleared the IELTS exam, how could I clear it?

Yes, of course, you can. This is just a notion that another student is more intelligent or less intelligent than you; you just need to understand the concept of IELTS and need to take training under an expert IELTS trainer, if you do so you can easily clear the exam in very first attempt.

Think
CANADIAN

I have prepared 200 cue cards, would that be enough?

It doesn't matter even if you have prepared 500 cards; important thing is that Are you naturally prepared. If you are naturally prepared and understand the concept, then only 15 cue cards are sufficient.

When will I get a better band score in IELTS - when a foreigner examiner conducts my speaking interview or North Indian or South Indian?

It would be far better if you would improve your skills rather than worrying about who conducts your exam, if your practice is really good, it doesn't matter whosoever the interviewer is.

Some of the students have taken the IELTS test many times but they aren't able to clear it despite many attempts, why is that?

Some of the students aren't able to clear the IELTS test even after many attempts, the basic reason behind this is that when these students go for the IELTS test they carry various doubts with them, because of that they have lack of confidence during the exam and they fail every time. In other words, we can say that it is because of not having an expert teacher.

I have taken the IELTS test 3 times in the past 4 months and also changed the institute 3 times, but I am not able to clear the IELTS test? What should I do in this situation?

First of all, the student should change his way of thinking rather than an institute. If students take training from a good institute, then there is no need to change the institute and you can clear your exam in the first attempt.

I didn't learn English during all my school time, can I clear my IELTS in 3 months?

Yes, you can. If you practice daily under the supervision of an experienced teacher, you can easily clear your exam in 3 months.

I have done studies from Punjab School Education Board, Can I get 9 Bands?

As per our opinion, everyone is talented enough in this world, if your teacher is good and you do enough practice with dedication and patience then you can also get 9 bands.

Do I need to prepare every topic in writing module?

No, you needn't prepare all the topics but you should prepare in such a way that whatever topic is there in the exam, you can easily write about it any time, it can only happen when you are getting your IELTS training from an expert trainer. To understand how to manage different topics, you can visit our institute.

Do I need to prepare every topic in the writing module?

No, you needn't prepare all the topics but you should prepare in such a way that whatever topic is there in the exam, you can easily write about it any time, it can only happen when you are getting your IELTS training from an expert trainer. To understand how to manage different topics, you can visit our institute.

I have done studies from Punjab School Education Board, can I get 9 Bands?

As per our opinion, everyone is talented enough in this world, if your teacher is good and you do enough practice with dedication and patience then you can also get 9 bands.

Which Module is tough in Ielts and which one is Easy in IELTS?

It is just the mindset up; no module is easy or difficult. So you should give equal importance to each module.

I always do well in my IELTS class but I get low bands in the IELTS exam, Why is that?

The main reason behind this problem is your fear; if you have done your practice well then there won't be any fear in your mind.

My band scores are lower than my expectation although my exam was really good, Should I have a re-evaluation or should I fill my exam yet again?

There is no good or bad exam, but we will recommend you re-valuation.

How many hours should I practice to clear my IELTS exam?

This is not an IAS Exam, So what matters the most is that what material a student is studying every day rather than how many hours he is studying.

Do I need to be perfect in grammar for IELTS Exam?

Yes, you need to learn English grammar, but how deeply you need to go, only an experienced teacher can tell you about it after evaluating your performance.

Where I can get the right material for my IELTS practice?

Firstly you need the right and experienced teachers, if your teacher is right, he/she will guide you with his/her experience that what type of material is good for you. And therefore, you needn't learn all the topics instead you need to study the material that your teacher asks you to do.

I am not able to generate ideas while doing speaking and writing, what should I do?

First of all, you need to become a good reader and when you get in habit of reading newspapers, books and articles then you will learn many ideas and you won't feel any problem while generating ideas.

I have failed many times to get the expected bands score? Can I clear my IELTS exam in the next attempt?

Yes, you can clear your IELTS test in the next attempt, if you start working on your mistakes. what happens actually is that students don't work on their mistakes and keep on changing institutes after failing to clear the exam, If the students understand that the problem is with them, then they will work upon that and they can clear the IELTS exam quite easily.

How many vocabulary words should I learn?

If your teacher is good , then he will teach you smartly that same type of vocabulary can be used in writing and speaking as one word has many meanings, a limited number of vocabulary words are good and sufficient enough , if you use them in right manner.

Do I need to learn full grammar in IELTS?

when you speak Punjabi, do you know full grammar? It's not important to learn all the grammar rules. You just need to learn the main important basic rules of grammar, and you need to practice and implement them in your IELTS.

Should I read an English newspaper?

Yes, you should. By doing so, you can improve your reading, vocabulary and at the same time, you can get topic knowledge and then use that knowledge in IELTS modules especially in writing and speaking.

I belong to a village; will I get fewer band scores as compared to students from cities?

This negative feeling affects at least a half to 1 band score. It doesn't matter whether you are from a village or a city, you can get expected band scores. Remember one thing, every person is equally talented. So you just need to change your thinking.

Think
CANADIAN

Are there any special words that can help me to achieve higher bands scores?

English is a practical language, it's not a subject. If you are learning only words then your training is not good.

What kind of advice you would like to give to +2 students who want to do IELTS after the completion of their exams?

Our advice to those students is that while they are doing a study, they can perform few activities at home. By doing so, their understanding of the English language will get better and they will be able to save a lot of time and money that they may be wasted in IELTS centers if you are not well-prepared. To know about these activities they need to visit our institute.

Think
CANADIAN

How much time does it take for an average Ielts student to prepare for IELTS Test?

An average student needs a minimum of 2 to 3 months of good coaching to clear the IELTS test. But the condition is that the student must prepare for IELTS with full focus.

Where will my IELTS exam come from?

IELTS is the exam of Ideas and understanding, you should prepare in such a way, no matter from where the exam comes, you can clear it easily. If your teacher is experienced then he will make you understand this thing quite well.

Summary

IELTS is quite easy and you can crack this test on the first attempt, but you need to understand its concept. A student with 5.5 Bands can easily get 6+ Band Scores if he does proper planning. To achieve better Band Scores such students need counseling that they can get from our institute "Think Canadian".

Think →
CANADIAN

Think
CANADIAN

Licence No: 71/CEA/CC-3

 9888214516

Head Office

 Opposite Nirankari Bhavan, GT Road, Bathinda Punjab

Branch Office

 2nd Floor, Barnala Rd, Opp Muthoot Finance, Sirsa Haryana

