Reception in demand in literature classes, Russian language, history, social science, MHK. How to conduct work on writing an essay in class? About this essay writing services

You can select a single algorithm for writing an essay. I suggest the following option:

⌚ The teacher selects an essay or statement (aphorism) in advance.

corresponding to the studied material.

⌚ A brainstorming session is held on the issue outlined in saying. Selected assumptions about what we write? Notice here that the problem is singled out, and the student's opinion is not discarded.

⌚ Time stipulated. It can be work for 5-20 minutes.

⌚ Those who wish can read their essay before the class.

⌚ After the teacher checks, the best essays are read out in the following lessons.

What difficulties and mistakes are more common just when writing an essay?

⌚ The need to determine the relevance of the topic. Actually - means demanded to date. This is the correspondence of the discussed question with the current situation world, country, human life.

⌚ The word "problem" should appear at the beginning of work. Author essay showing the relevance of the topic, should clearly explain the meaning of the phrase.

⌚ The requirement to present their position sometimes leads to unnecessary emotionality, which replaces the arguments and facts. Students start delve into your emotions, expressing indignation, or, conversely, praising the subject descriptions. Behind such "words" stands emptiness and ignorance. Sometimes turn the narrative is not in a work on social studies or literature, but in discourses about to myself.

And:

⌚ The number of facts and arguments. One example is not enough, you can not develop a theme; Five - brute force, overload, because the essay is a "small genre."

⌚ Loss of the main thread of reasoning, weak connection of parts of the essay.

I will dwell on tips on writing a work on social studies:

🕒 Observe the ratio of the introduction (20%), the main part (60%) and the conclusion (20%). The introduction describes the problem, the relevance, its position:

agreement (disagreement) with the author's statement. After stating your position,

Go to the main part, where you bring the facts and arguments with justification.

🕒 Recall and draft social science terms on the topic, competently use them in the text.

🕒 Use cliché. "I can not join this statement and

I will try to justify my position ... "," We illustrate this statement examples, "" The author touches on an actual problem ... ", etc.

🕒 Use a dash, the most "modern" punctuation mark that introduces dosed emotionality.

🕒 Make sentences simple and short.

🕒 Draw conclusions in the conclusion.
