CalCCA's Annual Conference Comes to Irvine — and OCPA's Vice Chair James Mai Will Deliver Opening Remarks

Exciting news! The 2025 California Community Choice Association (CalCCA) Annual Conference is coming to Irvine from April 28–30, bringing over 800 attendees and boosting the local economy while showcasing Orange County's leadership in renewable energy. This year's theme, "Powerful Together," highlights the importance of collaboration in advancing clean energy solutions with discussions on regional strategies, virtual power plants, AI-driven technologies, and funding opportunities. OCPA Board of Directors Vice Chair James Mai will deliver the opening remarks, emphasizing OCPA's commitment to driving innovation and community-centered energy solutions.
