LIGHTING THE WAY
HARBOR LIGHT

The Program
Join us as we celebrate the work of The Salvation Army’s Harbor Light Center. This year’s keynote speaker will be Bevan Dufty, former Director of HOPE (Housing Opportunity, Partnerships and Engagement), Office of San Francisco Mayor Lee. The Harbor Light Center provides an integrated, supportive environment encouraging confidence and independence in its clients, made possible in part by the continuing dedication of supporters like you.

The Purpose
For 75 years, The Harbor Light Center has transformed the lives of San Franciscans in need by serving adults in recovery, veterans, single parents with children, and the homeless. The Harbor Light Center not only meets the physical needs of its residents, but provides an environment of healing and hope.

As you partner with us, you will help individuals conquer addiction, help families strengthen their relationships, and provide the homeless of San Francisco with basic needs. Every day, people benefit from The Salvation Army’s alcohol and drug recovery services made possible through the support of our donors. Now is the opportunity for you to contribute to programs lighting the way for people ready to dramatically improve their lives.
