Dear Prospective Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in The Salvation Army's Housing Programs. All applicants wishing to be considered must first meet the eligibility guidelines listed below:

- ❖ Must be homeless or at risk of becoming homeless due to eviction, foreclosure, loss of employment, domestic violence, or divorce, and must be able to provide proof of circumstances.
- ❖ Must meet low-income guidelines.
- ❖ Applicants must be 18 years of age or older.
- ❖ A criminal background check will be conducted. Anyone convicted of a felony, violent offence, or sexual offence will not be accepted into the program.
- ❖ Unless unable due to protected disability, must be able to actively look for and secure employment in the first 30 days of the Emergency Housing program. Transitional Housing Program Applicants must be working a minimum of 32 hours per week for at least 30 days prior to entering the program, unless unable due to a protected disability.
- ❖ Must be pregnant or have children under the age of 18 currently living with them and have at minimum 50% shared legal/physical custody of children in care and be able to provide documentation.
- ❖ Children must be enrolled in and attending an education curriculum.
- ❖ Must be free of all alcohol and drugs for at least 12 months and be able to provide proof of sobriety and/or recovery program.
- ❖ Both single parents and couples with children are eligible.
- ❖ Must be willing to adhere to all program guidelines and to work closely with a case manager towards self-sufficiency.

For more information call Yesenia Lopez-Rubio at (831) 899-1071 for an initial phone screening or email Yesenia.Lopez-Rubio@usw.salvationarmy.org. Applications are only available after an initial screening is completed.

After review, applicants will be contacted to schedule an interview. Only applicants who complete both the application packet and the interview will be placed on the wait list.

All questions must be directed to Yesenia Lopez-Rubio by phone or email. Thank you!
