

L.A. COUNTY'S FUTURE STARTS WITH YOU

We're stronger when we Volunteer United. Whether you have an hour, an entire day, or want to make a longer term commitment, we have the right opportunity for you to get more involved. Together we can ensure that no individual, family, or child has to live in poverty.

Volunteer & Engagement Opportunities

Fall Into Literacy Community Book Festival | October 13, 2018

This annual event in Wilmington promotes literacy and education through community involvement. Volunteers provide vital event-day support.

Greater Los Angeles Homeless Count | January 2019

In partnership with the Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority, join 7,000+ volunteers for a four-day mission to count our homeless neighbors – because meaningful solutions require accurate data.

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA)

Jan 2019 (training) | Feb - Apr 2019 (volunteer)

Certified volunteer tax preparers help low income individuals and families, seniors, veterans, and non-English speaking taxpayers with crucial tax preparation assistance. Training is required.

Read Across America Day | March 2019

A nationwide reading celebration taking place on Dr. Seuss's birthday! Events take place at schools, libraries, community centers, and more.

HomeWalk | May 2019

In its 13th year, our annual family-friendly 5K run/walk raises more than $1 million annually to end homelessness. Volunteer, start a team, fundraise, or get your company involved and help change lives.

Stamp Out Hunger | May - June 2019

During the nation's largest food drive, volunteers are needed to sort 1.5 million pounds of non-perishable goods for low-income families. Open to the public, with private & semi-private group volunteering opportunities.

Trainings & Workshops | Year-round

Interactive workshops on our work, the nature of poverty, the Real Cost Measure in California, and more are available for your company, university, nonprofit, or group.

Giving Societies

Giving Society members are like-minded champions helping to raise funds, educate the community, and advocate for change. Join the group best suited for you.
