All,

I write to inform you that we have yet to resolve the last outstanding issue with CARB on our AB734 Certification. Unfortunately, this means we cannot publish the DEIR this Friday as planned.

I'm sorry to write with this news, I know you all have worked hard to get the document compiled and published. While we cannot publish this week, that hard work will pay off when we do resolve the AB734 certification, and DEIR publication can follow in short order.

Best,
Noah
