Yes, I believe that is still the plan. Crescentia will be sending the outlook invite since our server seems to have an issue with me sending invites outside the organization lately. Can you send back an e-mail list of the individuals that you team would like to have included in the invites to the meetings?

Subject: Meeting this week?

Hi Pete, I hope you had a good weekend. I am writing to check in about our meeting on Thursday—I do not see it on my calendar, but I believe we are beginning our weekly meetings this week? I know it can take a bit of coordination to get the invite out, so I don't meet to pester, I just wanted to confirm as I get a sense of this week.

Thanks,
Noah
