Crescentia-

I have a doctor's appointment for my daughter this coming Monday morning, so let's do 3-4pm on Monday. I have the 2nd floor conference room reserved.

Peter, would this time work for you to join as well?

Pete:

As mentioned, both Hillary and I are flexible anytime Mondays for a small, in-person planning meeting with you. One goal would be to confirm the agenda as early in the week as possible, as well as have an opportunity to discussion outside of the all-hands meeting with the project applicant. Start or end of day would be ideal (with a conference call option as needed). Let me know what could work.
