

Legal Comp Laude Award

Colleen Casey

Workers' Compensation Administrative Law Judge and former WCAB Commissioner in San Francisco, Colleen Casey received the 2015 Legal Comp Laude Award. A highly sought speaker, writer and trainer on workers' compensation law and issues, including regional training seminars for Workers' Compensation Judges, California Applicants' Attorneys Association and California Workers' Compensation Defense Attorneys' Association, Judge Casey is a former member of the Advisory Committee to the California Commission on Health and Safety and Workers' Compensation (1997-2002) and the recipient of numerous awards from the American Bar Association, San Francisco Bar Association and the State Bar of California. Earning her BA degree from the University of California, Berkeley, and her JD from Golden Gate Law School in San Francisco, Judge Casey co-chairs the Education Committee and has authored several articles, including "Workers' Comp Reform: A Silver Lining," California Bar Journal, State Bar of California, August 2004; "Overview of the Changes to the Workers' Comp Law," Workers' Compensation Quarterly, State Bar of California, Vol. 17, No. 1, (2004); and Chapters 2, 3 and 13 of California Workers' Compensation Practice, Continuing Education of the Bar, 4th Edition (2000).

