

Comp Laude® Award: Agent/Broker

Josh Diggs

His technical expertise, sound judgment, and vast network have made Josh one of the Southern California icons on the Workers' Compensation arena.

Josh has sixteen years of experience in the insurance industry. He spent thirteen years as an examiner for multiple carriers and one of the nation's largest TPAs. Josh also sits on the Board of Directors for HIRMA, Hispanic Insurance & Risk Management Association.

Josh started in this industry literally at the bottom. He was a mail clerk for State Fund and worked his way to up one step at a time and now is an equity partner in a brokerage firm. He works day and night every day of the week to perfect his craft and make sure that he is always moving forward.

He is committed to working with all industry stakeholders and treating injured workers with dignity and respect. Josh has contributed towards battling fraud in the industry and does an impeccable job of finding ways to tie in every contributor to one cause of preventing, handling, and advancing claims that arise in industries across the board.

Upon winning the 2018 Comp Laude® Award for Agent/Broker, Josh shared, "It's pretty exhilarating. I think a lot of us in the industry are very passionate about what we do, so to be recognized by the organization and our peers I think means a lot for me and for everyone I work with."
